ARTICLE IX

These Articles may be amended in the manner provided by the Idaho Statutes at the time of the amendment.

ARTICLE X

The business affairs of this corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors with exception to revision of the Bylaws, which shall require two-thirds affirmative vote of a quorum of the membership in good standing as defined in the Bylaws or except as hereinafter provided to the contrary.

ARTICLE XI

The business and purpose of this corporation shall be to promote the sport of bowling and generally to encourage and coordinate bowling activities and related projects.

1. To make and adopt Bylaws, rules, and regulations for the admission, suspension and expulsion of its members, and for their government and assessments; for the election and appointment of directors and other officers, and to define their duties, for the safekeeping and protection of its property and interests, and from time to time, alter, repeal, rescind or vary its Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, rules and regulations or any of them. Idaho Falls Womens Bowling Association, Inc. shall be regulated and governed as set forth in the Constitution, the Constitution Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation and the Corporate Bylaws.

2. To conduct business in this state, other states, District of Columbia, territories and colonies of the United States, and in foreign countries, to encourage and assist in the organization and operation of associated chapters of this organization in the surrounding areas of this state, and in areas outside of this state in the attainment of the objectives herein named.

3. Have one or more offices from which to carry on all or any part of its operations and business, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, desirable, and proper for the accomplishment of any of its purposes of the attainment of any one or more of the objectives named herein, and to have one or more offices and places of business out of this state and to acquire, receive, hold, purchase, lease, mortgage, dispose of and/or convey real or personal property situated out of the state.

4. To acquire by purchase or otherwise and hold, own, sell, convey, encumber and transfer all kinds of real and personal property of every kind and description, required in connection with the conduct of the business of the corporation in the State of Idaho.

5. To borrow money or otherwise incur indebtedness, without limit as to amount and to draw, make, accept, endorse, transfer, guarantee, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, notes, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, negotiable instruments, and all instruments for the payment of money, negotiable or non-negotiable, and whether secured or unsecured, that may pertain to and further increase and promote the conduct of the business of the corporation.

6. Engage in and promote or operate, conduct and carry on types of fund raising benefits or businesses for the purposes of obtaining funds for promotion and the furtherance, operation, and development of the business and services of the corporation.

7. To enter into, make, perform, and carry out contracts of every sort and kind with any person, firm, agent, agency, state, or government association or corporation.

8. To acquire, own, hold and dispose of grants, concessions and franchises of interests therein.

9. To appoint agents, subagents, salesmen and to enter into all necessary contracts with agents, subagents, salesmen and dealers.

10. To enter into contract obligations of any type or kind essential, necessary or proper to the transaction of its ordinary affairs or for the purposes of the corporation.

11. To have, exercise and enjoy all the powers now or hereafter granted to corporations organized under the laws of the State of Idaho, and particularly all of the powers and privileges granted to corporations organized under the laws of the State of Idaho, and particularly all of the powers and privileges granted to corporations by Chapter 10 of Title 30 of the Idaho Code, and any present and/or future amendments thereto and to do any act or anything necessary or convenient for the transaction of the aforesaid business and/or carrying into effect any and all of the aforesaid objects and purposes.

12. All of the foregoing provisions in this Article are to be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that the enumeration herein of specific objects and powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the corporation; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the corporation to carry on any business or to exercise any power or to do any act which non-profit cooperative corporations formed under laws of Idaho now or hereafter existing, may not at the time lawfully carry on or do. It is the intention that the purposes, objects and powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this article of the Articles of Incorporation shall, except as otherwise provided, in no wise be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the term of any other clause or paragraph of this paragraph contained or of any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation shall be regarded as independent purposes, objects and powers.

ARTICLE XII

The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE XIII

The names and post office addresses of the members forming this corporation are as set out in Article VI above.

ARTICLE XIV

All or any meeting of the shareholders or of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Idaho.

ARTICLE XV

In the event of dissolution of this corporation, said dissolution shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the Idaho statutes at the time of such dissolutionment, and all moneys and properties shall be disposed of in such manner, time, and place, as shall be determined by a duly constituted quorum of the certified members of the corporation in good standing.
