all of the things hereafter set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do in any part of the world, namely:

To purchase, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire and own, hold, use, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, exchange, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property of every kind and description, including shares of stock, bonds, debentures, notes, evidences of indebtedness, and other securities, contracts, or obligations of any corporation or corporations, association or associations, domestic, or foreign, and to pay therefore in whole or in part in cash or by exchanging therefore stocks, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness or securities of this or any othercorporation, and while the owner or holder of any such real or personal property, stocks, bonds, debentures, notes evidences of indebtedness or other securities, contracts or obligations, to receive, collect and dispose of the interest, dividends and income arising from such property, and to possess and exercise in respect thereof, all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including all voting powers on any stocks so owned.

To aid either by loans or by guaranty of securities or in any other manner, any corporation, domestic or foreign, in which this corporation shall have any interest, and to do any acts designed to protect, preserve, improve, or enhance the value of any property at any time held or controlled by this corporation or in which if at that time may be interested.

To enter into, make, perform, and carry out contracts of any kind for any lawful purpose with any persons, firms, associations or corporations.

To purchase, acquire, lease, own and enjoy any and all such other property, real and personal, as may be reasonable necessary for the carrying on of the business of the corporation.

To borrow money for its corporate purposes, and to make, accept, indorse, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures, or other obligations from time to time, for the purchase of property, or for any purpose in or about the business of the Corporation, and, if deemed proper to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust or otherwise.

To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of or otherwise turn to account or deal with all or any part of the property of the Corporation.

To carry on business at any place or places within the jurisdiction of the United States, and in any and all foreign countries, and to purchase, hold, mortgage, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of and deal with real and personal property at any such place or places.

To do all and everything necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the power hereinbefore set forth, either alone or in connection with other corporations, firms, or individuals and either as principals, or agents and to do every other act or acts, thing or things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid objects, purposes or powers or any of them.

The foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be deemed to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the corporation, and the enjoyment and exercise thereof, as conferred by the laws of the State of Idaho.
