NOW THEREFORE the corporation does hereby amend and restate its articles of incorporation as follows:

ARTICLE I.

The name of the corporation shall be Community United Methodist Church, Inc., and the corporation shall have perpetual existence. The location of its principal office shall be at 1470 West Hanley, in the City of Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho.

ARTICLE II.

The objects of the corporation are:

A. The corporation shall support the Doctrine, and the corporation and all its property, both real and personal, shall be subject to the laws, usages, and ministerial appointments of the United Methodist Church as the same are now or shall be from time to time established, made and declared by the lawful authority of the said Church.

B. The corporation shall have the power to acquire and hold title in fee simple, in trust, or otherwise, to both real and personal property, and to improve, incumber, lease, sell, convey, and dispose of all such property in conformity with the Discipline of The United Methodist Church. The Corporation shall have the further right to borrow money by any lawful means to carry out the objects of the corporation, encumbering its properties as security therefore, all in conformity to said Discipline.

C. Subject to the provisions of the Discipline, the corporation shall have the power to erect and maintain buildings for the worship of God, for training in Christian faith and conduct, and for Christian social intercourse, and to acquire or build and maintain residences for the use and occupancy of its ministers.

D. To beautify and improve the property of the said corporation by the construction of playgrounds, landscaping, parking facilities, and other improvements in conformity with the general purpose of the organization and the welfare of its members and community.

E. To engage in all forms of religious, missionary, and social charitable work or endeavor, and in general promote, spread, and establish the Christian gospel, and to furnish and provide training and instruction for the youth of the community.

ARTICLE III.

This corporation shall be a non-profit organization and its membership shall be the membership of the Charge Conference of the local church of the same name established by the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as provided in the Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

ARTICLE IV.

The Board of Directors of the corporation shall be the Board of Trustees of the above-named Conference Charge, elected and organized as prescribed in the Discipline of the United Methodist Church. The present Trustees of the corporation shall serve during their current terms of office, and until their successors are duly elected in accordance with the Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

ARTICLE V.

The authority to make By-Laws for this corporation is expressly vested in the Board of Trustees, subject to the power of the members to change or repeal such By-Laws. All By-Laws of the corporation shall be in conformity with the laws of the State of Idaho, and shall include the Discipline of the United Methodist Church as from time to time enacted, authorized and declared by the General Conference and no other By-Laws shall be adopted inconsistent with the provisions of the Discipline.

ARTICLE VI.

If for any reason, at any time, this corporation shall cease to exist as a legal entity and its charter shall expire or be terminated, then the title to all its property, both real and personal, shall be vested in The Board of Trustees of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, a corporation; and all such property shall be held in trust for the benefit of Community United Methodist Church.

Re: Articles of Amendment of First United Methodist Church, Inc.
Also known as United Methodist Church, Inc.

Dear Mr. Ysursa:

Enclosed for filing with your office is Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation for First United Methodist Church, an Idaho Non-profit corporation. I have also enclosed my check for $30.00, which I understand to be the correct fee for this service.

Please file the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and return the filed document to me.

In compliance with Idaho Code Section 30-3-93 I affirm that First United Methodist Church, Inc. also known as United Methodist Church, Inc., changed its name, which required the corporation to amend its articles of incorporation. The only change is the change in the corporation's name and the full text of the amendment is contained in the attached amended articles. The amendment was adopted on December 7, 2008. Approval of the members of the corporation was required. The corporation has only one class of members entitled to vote on the proposed amendment. Each member is entitled to cast only one such vote. The total number of votes cast in favor of the amendment was at least 80. No votes were cast in opposition to the amendment. The number of votes cast for the amendment was, therefore, sufficient for approval by the membership of the proposed amendment.

Very truly yours,

David W. Lohman
