VIII.

The property of the stockholders of the corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatsoever, and the shares of the corporation shall not be subject to assignment for the purpose of paying expenses, conducting business, or paying debts of the corporation.

IX.

The number of directors of the corporation shall be as specified in the Bylaws, provided that the number of directors of the corporation shall not be fewer than the number required by the provisions of the Idaho Business Corporation Act, Idaho Code §30-1-101 et seq. In case the board of directors amends the Bylaws of the corporation so as to increase the number of directors, the additional directors may be elected by the directors then in office, and the directors so elected shall hold office until their successors, as elected at the next annual meeting of the stockholders, are qualified.

X.

A voluntary sale, lease or exchange of all of the property and assets of the corporation, including its good will and its corporate franchise, may be made by the board of directors after authorization by the shareholders upon such terms and conditions as the Board may deem expedient and for the best interests of the corporation.

The board of directors is expressly authorized to repeal and amend the Bylaws of the corporation and to adopt new Bylaws, and the corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, by a vote of the stockholders at any stockholder meeting except where the laws of the State of Idaho otherwise provide.

Pursuant to Idaho Code §30-1-732, the shareholders of the corporation intend to enter into a shareholder agreement which will provide, amongst other things, that each director of the corporation who is also a shareholder shall be entitled to vote on any and every issue the number of votes equal to the number of shares owned by such shareholder. Any director who is not a shareholder of the corporation shall be entitled to one vote on any and every issue.
