AMENDED

Articles of Incorporation Of THE LINDER ROAD CHURCH OF CHRIST, INC.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the 25th St. Church of Christ, of Boise, Idaho, Inc., was formed as a non-profit religious corporation and the initial directors were elected at a legally called meeting on February 16, 1964; and

WHEREAS, a Certificate of Incorporation was issued by the Idaho Secretary of State on March 9, 1964, which certified that the Articles of Incorporation were filed and the church was constituted a corporation; and

WHEREAS, on October 18, 1992, a vote of the membership was taken to change the name of the corporation to The Linder Road Church of Christ, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, a Certificate of Amendment was issued by the Idaho Secretary of State on November 24, 1992 changing the corporate name to The Linder Road Church of Christ, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable to make certain changes and amend the Articles of Incorporation in order to qualify for exemption under section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code;

THEREFORE, at a meeting of the Directors held on March 26, 2017, these amended Articles of Incorporation were adopted by a majority vote of the Directors in office, and supersede the theretofore existing Articles of Incorporation and amendments thereto.

ARTICLE II

The purposes of the corporation are:

- (1) The primary purpose of the corporation shall be to function as a church wherein service, work, instruction, fellowship, worship, benevolence, teaching God's word and other such activities may be conducted in accordance with the standards of the Bible, both Old and New Testaments, and in conformity with the laws of the United States of America and the state of Idaho. We desire to seek to glorify God, preach biblical principles, promote understanding of biblical principles, disciple, equip, edify and build up the members of the body of Christ, evangelize and spread the gospel of Christ and to perform every other act incidental or necessary thereto.

- (2) The corporation is organized exclusively for non-profit charitable, religious, and educational purposes, within the meaning as allowed under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (3) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, manage, sell, exchange, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property of every kind, nature and description; but said corporation shall not own nor hold more real estate than is, or will be, necessary for its stated purpose and objectives.
- (4) To receive monetary donations and to receive, manage, take, and hold real and personal property by gift, grant, demise, or otherwise, for the purposes herein specified.
- (5) To do everything necessary, convenient, or proper in carrying out the foregoing enumerated purposes in their fullest and broadest sense.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV

Management of the designated affairs of the corporation shall be vested in Directors in accordance with the corporations most recent policy statements dated, August 1, 2016, any subsequent revisions or repeal of those policies and the pertinent laws of the state of Idaho.

Directors shall consist of duly appointed elders and other such persons as the elders select, according to the processes, terms, conditions, and responsibilities specified in the New Testament and the corporate policy statements.

The personal liability of each Director and each uncompensated officer of the corporation, for monetary or other damages, or for conduct as a Director, shall be eliminated to the full extent permitted by Idaho Code Section 30-30-626 (Indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents).

ARTICLE VIII

In the event of dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed, after the payment of all debts and obligations to another non-profit organization with similar objectives and purposes as found in Article III, operating in Idaho, that conform to the exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the undersigned officers of the corporation, declare under penalties of perjury that we have examined the foregoing document and to the best of our knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete.
