ARTICLE VII.

The corporation shall indemnify any present or former officer or director of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor, and their respective heirs, administrators, personal representatives, successors and assigns, against any and all costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, counsel fees, judgments paid and amounts paid in settlement (before or after legal proceedings are commenced), actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or otherwise in nature, in which such person may be involved by reason of being or having been such director or officer of the corporation or such other corporation, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in any action, suit or proceeding to be liable for his own negligence or misconduct in the performance of a duty to the corporation or such other corporation. A conviction or judgment, whether based on a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or its equivalent, or after trial, in a criminal action, suit or proceeding shall not be deemed an adjudication of liability for negligence or misconduct in the performance of a duty to the corporation, or such other corporation, if such director or officer acted in good faith and believed that such action was for the best interest of the corporation or such other corporation with no reasonable cause to believe that the action was illegal. The foregoing indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director may be entitled under any bylaw, agreements, vote of shareholders or otherwise. The corporation, its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be fully protected in taking any action or making any payment under this Article VII, or in refusing to do so upon the advice of counsel.

ARTICLE VIII.
