Election of the regular board of directors shall take place at the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation as described in the Bylaws of the corporation. Any change in the number of directors of the corporation shall be made consistent with the provisions for regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation as set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE X - AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be made at any annual meeting or special meeting of the board of directors, and must be made in the following manner:

Amendments shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office. Any number of amendments may be submitted and voted upon at any one meeting. A written notice of the meeting, that shall include as a purpose the intent to amend the bylaws, shall be provided.

See, Idaho Code § 30-3-90.

ARTICLE XI – TERMINATION AND FINAL DISTRIBUTION

In the event that this corporation ceases to function as a non-profit corporation or is dissolved for any reason, its assets shall be distributed to the International Association of Healing Rooms, Inc., of 112 East First Avenue, Spokane, WA 99202, provided such organization qualifies at such time for exemption as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or a successor statute. In the event that the International Association of Healing Rooms, Inc. does not so qualify, then the assets of this corporation shall be distributed to such organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, in such a manner as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so distributed shall be distributed by the district court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations as said court shall determine to be consistent with the purposes of this corporation.

ARTICLE XII - INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation will indemnify any director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation made a party, or threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than one by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, brought to impose a liability on such person for an act alleged to have been committed by such person in his or her capacity as director or officer of the corporation, or as director, officer, employee or agent of any other entity when he or she served at the request of the corporation), by reason of fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Indemnification shall include judgments, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, actually and reasonably incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding or any appeal therein. Indemnification shall occur if such person is either successful in his or her defense or if the proceeding is terminated by settlement, and if such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the corporation. In criminal actions or proceedings, indemnification shall occur only if such person had reasonable grounds for belief that such action was lawful. No indemnification shall exist for criminal acts committed by such person.

DATED this 31st day of January, 2004.
