Permissible Transfer of Partnership Interest.

A partner or assignee of a partnership interest herein shall have the right to sell, assign, gift or encumber his respective interest in this partnership, or any portion thereof, to the other partner, during his lifetime or to any other partner or to his spouse or children by his Last Will and Testament or intestate succession without the prior consent of the remaining Partners, and such sale, transfer, assignment, bequest, passage or encumbrance shall not effect a dissolution of this partnership. The recipient, other than another partner, shall receive the partnership interest subject to the limitations of this agreement and those of A.R.S. Section 29-319 and 29-217, unless and until the other Partners unanimously approve the recipient as a partner.

Restricted Transfer of Partnership Interest.

In the event that a partner shall desire to withdraw from the partnership, or desire to sell, assign, gift, encumber or in any other manner dispose of his respective interest in the partnership, in whole or in part, he shall first give written notice of such desire to the other remaining partners at such other partners' respective residence addresses. The notice shall contain the price and all of the terms and conditions of such proposed transfer or encumbrance, the percentage of partnership interest proposed to be transferred or encumbered and the name of the person or persons to be involved in the proposed transfer or encumbrance. Upon receipt of the written notice, the remaining partners may elect to purchase or participate in the transfer or encumbrance of all of the percentage of partnership interest on the terms proposed, and the remaining partner shall have thirty (30) days therefrom within which to accept the selling partner's offer upon the same terms and conditions as are set forth in said notice. If the remaining partners elect to accept all of the selling partner's offer, such acceptance shall be in writing, shall be signed by the remaining partners and shall be mailed to the selling partner within said thirty (30) day period.

In the event the remaining partners do not elect to accept all of the percentage of partnership interest being offered by the selling partner, or if the remaining partners have not made a valid election within said thirty (30) day period, the selling partner shall be free to transfer or encumber the percentage of partnership interest which was the subject of the proposed offer to the person or persons named in the offer and upon terms and conditions the same as or not less favorable to the selling partner than those contained in the written notice sent to the remaining partners. Any transfer or encumbrance of said partnership interest to other persons or at a lesser price or on terms less favorable to the selling partner than those originally proposed shall be invalid unless first offered to the remaining partners, as hereinabove provided. In the event that the selling partner does not consummate his proposed transfer or encumbrance within six (6) months from the expiration of the thirty (30) day acceptance period granted to the remaining partners, such offer by the selling partner shall terminate and any subsequent offer of transfer or encumbrance shall again comply with the terms of this Agreement. If any transfer or encumbrance occurs to any person or entity other than the remaining partners, the selling partner shall immediately deposit with the partnership, executed copies of all documents relating to such transfer or encumbrance and the remaining partners shall have the right to investigate the details of any such transfer or encumbrance. The purchaser or lender shall become a partner only upon the unanimous consent of the remaining partners.

11. Consummation of Transfer of Partnership Interest.

Any transfer of a partnership interest made hereunder shall be consummated through, and delivery shall be made at, the offices of the partnership, and all instruments and documents required shall be signed or endorsed on or before the closing date and shall be delivered to the partnership. The purchaser or lender shall deposit the purchase price or loan proceeds (or the initial payment, if there are deferred installments) with the partnership on or before the closing date. When all conditions precedent to the transfer have been completed, the partnership shall deliver at its principal office, the purchase price to the seller or the loan proceeds to the borrower, as the case may be, and an original or signed copy of all documents and instruments to each of the parties to the transaction.

CERTIFICATE OF LIMITED PARTNERSHIP - MAIN ST. MARKET LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

12 Salaries of Partners. No partner shall draw or be entitled to any salary except as may be agreed upon by vote of a majority of the partnership interests (as hereinafter defined). Lynn Myers shall be entitled to reimbursement for all ordinary and necessary expenditures made by him for and on behalf of the partnership. In addition, Lynn Myers shall be paid a management fee of seven and one-half (7 1/2%) percent of the gross rental income for management and administration. This fee shall include all costs for on site oversight of the Property, the leasing of the Property, bookkeeping and the like, but shall exclude legal services for such matters as the drafting or enforcement of the various leases, accounting fees for tax return preparation (all professional accounting services will be performed for a twenty-five (25%) percent discount from normal fees) annual financial statement preparation, and travel expenses and other like out of pocket expenses.

4.03 Distribution. The partnership shall retain reasonable working capital for the operation of the partnership, considering maturing liabilities of the partnership, operating expenses and reasonable reserves. All cash held by the partnership in excess of these amounts shall be considered "Distributable Cash". Distributable Cash resulting from the sale or transfer of Property or the improvements thereon, or from loan proceeds which result from financing or refinancing of the acquisition or improvements of the Property, to the extent that such loan proceeds exceed the loan being replaced and/or the cost of acquisition and/or improvements, shall be distributed pro rata to the capital account balances of the Partners to the extent thereof and then in proportion to their profit and loss ratio except for liquidation. All other Cash Distributions shall be distributed in proportion to the profit and loss ratio.

14. DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

Dissolution on Resignation, Death, Incompetency or Bankruptcy of a Partner. The resignation, death, adjudicated incompetency or bankruptcy, of the general partner shall cause the dissolution of this partnership.

WINDING UP OF PARTNERSHIP AFFAIRS.

Upon the dissolution of the partnership pursuant to Article VI of this Agreement, the business and affairs of this partnership shall be wound up and upon conclusion thereof, this partnership shall be terminated. The General Partner or his designee shall be the liquidating partners of the partnership.
