Dear Sir;

For the past five years Fitness and Forms INC. has not been in operation. I have filed forms and tax reports with the idea the business might be started up again. At this point I no longer have any expectations that Fitness and Forms Inc. will resume operations. Therefore, I would like to close down the corporation before the up-coming tax year. Please instruct me as to what procedures I should follow to end the corporation.

Thank you for your response to this request.

Sincerely,

Mary Busch

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your very nice letter explaining how to terminate the existence of FITNESS & FORMS, INC. I have read over the letter very carefully and have decided to forfeit the corporation prior to December 1, 1987. This letter is my written response to notify your office.

My only question at this point is do I need to file tax forms for 1987? As I stated in my previous letter FITNESS & FORMS INC. has not operated as a business for five years. Please inform me as to this matter.

Very truly yours,

MARY BUSCH
FITNESS & FORMS INC.

Mary Busch
