provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax Laws. The Corporation is organized for the following specific purposes:

- a. To function as a non-profit Corporation under the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act.
- b. The primary, exclusive, and only purpose for which this Corporation is organized are religious ones, to wit: to glorify God in corporate worship and all other activities of the church, to promote personal faithfulness in obedience to the commands of Christ by means of boldly teaching the truth of God's word, to proclaim that truth to society by providing opportunities and encouragement for members to support missions through prayer and monetary resources, and to equip and train members so that they might have an increasing impact on their family, local community and the world.
- c. The purposes shall include all other purposes that are related to the foregoing, provided that the same are exclusively for religious, educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax Laws. The property, contributions, gifts, income and principal received by the Corporation shall be applied without exception exclusively for religious, educational, and charitable purposes within the meaning and purpose of 501 (C) (3) and regulations promulgated thereunder as they now exist or may hereafter be amended.

2. Limitations. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the Corporation to carry on any business for profit, to exercise any act that a corporation formed under the Act, may not at that time lawfully carry on or do. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activity not permitted by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions and amendments of any subsequent Federal Tax Laws.

Article V

No part of the net earning or the assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof.

Article VI

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The number of Directors constituting the initial board of Directors of the corporation is three (3).

The members of the Corporation's initial Board of Directors shall be the President, Treasurer, and Secretary, who shall serve until their successors are duly qualified, elected, or appointed.

The names and street addresses of the persons constituting the initial Board of directors are:

Article VII

The Corporation is a confessional church in the Reformed tradition. The Corporation pursuant to its Church Order, shall duly elect its Officers who must adhere to the system of doctrine in these written confessions of faith which we believe to be a good and accurate summary of the Bible's teaching:

The Belgic Confession of Faith

The Canons of Dort

The Heidelberg Catechism

The Westminster Standards

Members of the Corporation are accepted pursuant to its Church Order by profession of faith, affirming the evangelical distinctive that salvation is accomplished by grace alone through faith alone because of Christ alone. No voting members.

Article VIII

The Private property of the Directors and officers of the Corporation shall not be liable for the obligations of the Corporation.

Article IX

This Corporation is one, which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the entity or to the Directors thereof, and it is organized for non-profit purposes.

Upon the dissolution or winding up of affairs of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities on the Corporation, distribute all the assets of the Corporation to such organization or organizations as shall at the time qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, in such manner as the Board of Directors shall determine.

Article X

Provision for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation shall be set forth in the doctrinal and governmental standards as set forth in the Church Order. This form of government is Presbyterian in nature; meaning the Corporation is governed by a plurality of elders (Titus 1:5; Acts 20:17). These elders are to be biblically qualified men (1 Timothy 3:1-7) who have been nominated, trained, examined and ordained to oversee the affairs of the church.

Article XI

Until otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, Alan W. Crager, whose address is 1825 Broadmoor Drive, Boise, Idaho, is appointed registered agent of the Corporation.
