ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF REACH OUT, INC.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, Being natural persons of full age and citizens of the United States, hereby incorporate ourselves as a non-profit, cooperative association under the Nonprofit Cooperative Association Law of the State of Idaho (Sections 30-1001ff. I. C.).

ARTICLE I

The name of this association shall be REACH OUT, INC.

ARTICLE II

The purposes of the association are:

To establish and operate a non-profit organization for the relief of the poor, the distressed, and the underprivileged. And, in general, to do anything and to exercise any power which now or hereafter might be lawful for the association to do or exercise, under and in pursuance of the Nonprofit Cooperative Association Law of the State of Idaho, or of any other law which now or hereafter might be applicable to the association.

ARTICLE III

The duration of the association shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE IV

The location and post office address of the registered office of the association shall be REACH OUT, INC. 975 E. 25th Street, Idaho Falls, Idaho 83401, but meetings of the Board of Directors or any executive committee thereof, may be held at such registered office or at such other place, within or without this state, as the Directors, by resolution or bylaw might provide.

ARTICLE V

1. The number and qualifications of members, terms and conditions of membership, fees or assessment of dues to carry on the business of the association, and other regulations consistent with the purposes of the association, and not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the State of Idaho or of the United States, shall be as the bylaws might prescribe.

2. The rights and interests of all members of the association shall be equal, and no member may have or acquire a greater interest therein than any other member.

3. No capital stock shall be issued, but a membership certificate shall be issued to each member, which certificate cannot be assigned so as to entitle a transferee thereof to become a member of the association, except by resolution of the Board of Directors and under such regulations as the bylaws might prescribe.

ARTICLE VI

1. Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

2. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

3. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII
