This corporation is organized under the provisions of the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act, Chapter 3, Title 30, of the Idaho Code, which shall govern all relationships between the corporation and its employees, officers and creditors.

Article Thirteen - Liability

To the fullest extent allowed by law, any director of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any act of omission in the director's capacity as a director, except that this Article Thirteen does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for:

- (a) a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders.
- (b) an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct;
- (c) a transaction from which a director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office;
- (d) an act or omission for which the liability of a director is expressly provided for by statute; or
- (e) an act related to an unlawful stock repurchase or payment of a dividend.

Article Fourteen -Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors, acting as Trustees in liquidation, shall after paying or making provisions for payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation, exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes, as shall at the time of distribution qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal revenue law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be of by the state district court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said district court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I, the undersigned incorporator, have set my hand this 3rd day of JUNE, 2005.
