ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF VALLEY INSURANCE, INC.

We, the undersigned, natural persons of the age of twenty-one (21) years or more, acting as the incorporators of this corporation under the laws of the State of IDAHO, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I CORPORATE NAME

The name of the corporation is VALLEY INSURANCE, INC.

ARTICLE II
CORPORATE PURPOSES

Section 1. In General. The purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

Clause (a). Specific Purpose. To operate an insurance company in all its ramifications.

Clause (b). General Purposes. (1). To develop, publish, print, and produce, manufacture, construct, purchase, or otherwise dispose of, to invest, trade, deal in and deal with, goods, merchandise, real and personal property of every class and description.

Other Purposes. (2) To acquire by purchase, subscription or otherwise, and to receive, hold, own, guarantee, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of or deal in and with any of the shares of the capital stock, script, warrants rights, bonds, debentures, notes, trust receipts, trust deeds, and other securities, obligations, choses in action and evidences of indebtedness or interest issued or created by any corporation, joint venture, joint stock companies, syndicates, associations, firms, trusts or persons, public or private, or by the Federal government, or by any state, territory, province, municipality, or other political subdivision or by any governmental agency, and as owner thereof to possess and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to execute consents and vote thereon, and to do any and all things and acts necessary or advisable for the preservation, protection, improvement and enhancement in value thereof.

(3). To have one or more offices, to carry on all of or any of its operations and business and without restriction or limit as to amount, to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property of every class and description in any of the states, districts, or territories of the United States, in any and all foreign countries, subject to the laws of such states, districts, territories, or countries, as principal, agent, broker or dealer.

Clause (c). Ancillary Purposes. To do all and everything necessary, suitable, and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the power hereinabove set forth, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms, or individuals, and to do every other act or acts, things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid objects or purposes or any part or parts thereof, provided the same be not inconsistent with the laws under which this corporation is organized.

Clause (d). To Carry Out Such Purposes in Other States. To carry out the purposes hereinabove set forth in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country, to the extent that such purposes are not forbidden by the laws of such state, territory, district or possession of the United States, or by such foreign country.

Clause (e). All other purposes authorized by the Laws of the State of IDAHO.

ARTICLE III EXISTENCE

The existence of the corporation shall be perpetual unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE IV CAPITAL STOCK

The authorized capital stock of this corporation shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) divided into 500,000 shares of stock with a par value of one cent ($0.01) per share. All stock of the corporation shall be common stock of the same class and have the same rights and limitations which rights and limitations are as follows:

(a). Shares of stock of this corporation shall be issued fully paid and shall be non-assessable for any purpose. The private property of the stockholders shall not be liable for the debts, obligations or liabilities of this corporation.

(b). Each share of common stock shall be entitled to one vote at shareholders meetings either in person or by proxy. Cumulative voting in election of directors shall not be permitted.

(c). Capital stock of the corporation may be issued and sold from time to time for such consideration as may be fixed by the Board of Directors provided that the consideration so fixed shall not be less than the par value of such stock.

(d). All holders of shares of common stock of this corporation shall be entitled to preemptive or preferential rights to subscribe to any unissued stock or any other securities which the corporation may now or hereafter be authorized to issue. Upon receipt of the written unanimous agreement of all stockholders, section (d) may be declared void by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V COMMENCING BUSINESS

This corporation will not commence business or otherwise engage in business until consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) has been received by the corporation for the issuance of its stock.

ARTICLE VI SALE OF COMMON STOCK BY SHAREHOLDERS

In the event a stockholder desires to sell his shares of stock, he must first offer them for sale to the corporation, then to the remaining stockholders proportionate to their present holdings. This restriction on the right of each stockholder to sell their stock shall be shown on the stock certificate at the time they are issued, so that no one will purchase the shares of stock without notice of this restriction. The price to be paid in such event shall be the value fixed by the shareholders from time to time and be recorded in the corporation's records under the signature of a majority of the stockholders.

A stockholder desiring to sell his stock shall file notice in writing of his intention with the Secretary of the corporation, who shall notify the Directors and then the remaining stockholders within ten days and unless the offer is accepted by the corporation, or any or all of the other stockholders within thirty days thereafter, those not accepting his offer shall be deemed to have waived their privilege of purchasing such stock on the same terms and conditions. Should any such stock not be purchased by the remaining stockholders within ten days following the thirty day (30) period above mentioned, then all of the remaining stockholders shall be deemed to have waived their privilege of purchasing stock and the stockholder or stockholders desiring to sell their stock shall be at liberty to sell to anyone. However, any offer to sell shares of stock to person who are not stockholders must be identical to offers made to the stockholders.

The aforesaid is a condition precedent on the transfer of the stock on the records of the corporation, it being the intention hereof to give to the corporation the first right to purchase and then to the remaining stockholders a pro-rata preference in the purchase of any stock to be sold by any stockholder and any attempted sale in violation of this provision is null and void.
