The capital stock of this corporation shall consist of ten thousand (10,000) shares of six (6) percent preferred stock of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per share and of the kind (100,000) shares of common stock of the par value of ten dollars ($10.00) per share.

the policies, plans, programs and expenditures in relation to the proposed and current work of this organization are as follows:

thirty (30) days in advance of the said redemption date. And, in case of the redemption hereunder of less than all of the outstanding preferred stock of this corporation, the certificate of such stock to be redeemed shall be determined by lot; and, if the last number drawn is that of a certificate for more shares of such stock than the remaining number of said shares called for redemption, only such number of said shares evidenced by such certificate shall be redeemed as equal such remaining number of shares of such stock called for redemption. After any shares of said preferred stock shall have been called for redemption in the manner herein provided and a sum sufficient to pay the redemption price thereof as herein fixed shall have been set aside by this corporation for that purpose, the holder thereof shall have no further right to receive dividends or enjoy any other right secured to him hereon or thereon to receive the redemption price herein fixed on the surrender of said shares of stock to this corporation.

(c) The holders of the common stock of this corporation shall be entitled to receive dividends hereon as and when declared by the corporation after the rights of the holders of the preferred stock hereon, this paragraph being, as herein specified, have been fully satisfied; but, if the dividends of the holders of the preferred stock of this corporation, as herein specified, have been so fully satisfied, then all amounts available for distribution as dividends or upon the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation shall be distributed pro rata to the holders of the common stock of this corporation. The sole and exclusive voting power in this corporation shall be as otherwise required by law, as hereby vested in the holders of the common stock of this corporation.

(d) This corporation has authority to increase the number of shares of all the shares of each class of its capital stock as may be provided by law and to create additional shares of its capital stock and of any class at any time as may be determined by the board of directors of this corporation; and any stock of this corporation at any time shall have no right to object to or prevent any such increase of the number of any such additional stock; and, upon any issue for any or other consideration of any such additional stock of this corporation or a subdivision of any such stock, the same shall be evidenced by the certificate of incorporation and the certificate of the shares of such stock in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State of New York.

be entitled of right or otherwise to subscribe for, purchase or receive any proportionate share of the stock to be issued, but the board of directors of this corporation may dispose of all such stock issued at the subscription, whether by offering same to stockholders or by sale or other disposition as it may deem advisable.

 subscription is received by the bank and the full amount of the
 subscription is received by the bank and the full amount of the

of the stock in this corporation to which each of them has subscribed for such amounts as hereinafter set forth, and that the said securities are necessary and desirable in the conduct of the corporation's business. That more than 10% of the capital stock of this corporation has been paid in, in cash and its equivalent in securities. That the balance of the capital stock, to-wit:

$257,500.00 or 25,750 shares of common stock and $1,000,000.00 or 10,000 shares of preferred stock, is at this time unsubscribed.

ARTICLE VIII

That the private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall not be liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of this corporation.

ARTICLE IX

That the issued and outstanding common stock of this corporation shall be assessable by the affirmative vote of three-fourths of the said stock.

ARTICLE X

The officers of the corporation shall be a president, one or more vice-presidents, as shall be determined by the board of directors from time to time, a secretary and a treasurer, and such other officers as the board of directors may provide for in the conduct of the corporation. Any officer may hold two or more offices. Each person who is eligible to be elected or appointed of this corporation, shall be the owner of at least one share of stock of this corporation, shall be the owner of at least five shares of the common stock of this corporation, as the case may be.
The president shall be chosen for a term of one year and shall hold office of each term. The vice-president, secretary and treasurer may be selected from the directors or may be selected by the stockholders, and need not be stockholders.

ARTICLE XI

The board of directors of this corporation shall consist of not less than five (5) nor more than nine (9) directors, who shall be elected by the stockholders consisting of five (5) shares of stock. The board of directors shall have the power and authority, at any regular or special meeting, to determine and exercise the management of the corporation within the limits of the law. If the number of directors be increased, the additional shares shall be held by a majority of the directors in office at the time of the increase, to-wit: one share for each share to the next annual meeting, and thereafter one share for each share of stock

ARTICLE III

The divisions of this corporation shall be divided as the annual meeting of stockholders and at any special meeting of stockholders called for that purpose.

The annual stockholders' meeting of the corporation for election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as shall lawfully come before it, shall be held on the second day of May, 1933, and annually thereafter at 10 o'clock a.m. on the second day of May, at a place in this State City, Ohio, to be designated by the board of directors, unless any of the said days shall fall on a holiday, in which case such meeting shall be held at the same hour and place on the next succeeding day which is not a holiday.

Failure to hold said annual meeting at any place and time designated by the board of directors of the corporation for the year shall not bind it or in any way interfere with the corporate rights acquired under this agreement, but any such meeting may be held at any time and place, giving 15 days' notice in the manner hereinafter provided for special meetings of the stockholders.

Special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the board of directors, the president, the secretary or any other director when deemed necessary. Notice of special meetings may be given by mailing to each stockholder at his address, as shown by the books of the corporation, 15 days before the date of such meeting, a notice stating the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

At all stockholders' meetings, all those present in person, or by the action of a majority of the stockholders, and in case of all the necessary for the transaction of the business of the corporation, whether the stockholders be in person or by proxy, shall be entitled to vote, and all such votes shall be counted together or separately, and the result of the vote shall be ascertained as he holds, or as he is entitled to vote and represented by proxy, and the result shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

Within 30 days after the close of each fiscal year the corporation shall prepare a statement of its affairs, and shall cause the same to be audited by a certified public accountant, and shall cause the same to be filed with the State of Ohio, and shall cause the same to be published in the State of Ohio.

Dear Mother
 I have just received
 your letter of the 11th
 and was glad to hear from you. I am well
 and hope this finds you the same. I have not much news to write
 at present. I am still in the same place. I have been thinking of writing
 to you for some time
 but have been so busy
 that I could not find time. I hope to write
 more often in the future.
 Love
 Your affectionate son
 John Smith

Dear Mother
 I have just received
 your letter of the 10th.
 I am glad to hear
 that you are all well.
 I am feeling better
 but still not quite
 recovered.
 Love,
 John

1962 JUN 14 PM 9 37 ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF

Merchants, Inc.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 16-10-57 of the Utah Business Corporation Act, the undersigned corporation adopts the following Articles of Amendment to its Articles of Incorporation:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is Merchants, Inc.

SECOND: The following amendment of the Articles of Incorporation was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation on June 5, 19 62, in the manner prescribed by the Utah Business Corporation Act:

(Insert Amendment)

The capital stock of this corporation shall consist of one hundred thousand (100,000) shares of common stock of the par value of ten dollars ($10.00) per share.

The preferences, rights, privileges and restrictions appertaining to the common stock of this corporation are as follows:

(a) The holders of the common stock of this corporation shall be entitled to receive dividends and assets of all amounts available for distribution as dividends or upon the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation shall be distributed pro rata to the holders of the common stock of this corporation. The sole and exclusive voting power in this corporation, except as is otherwise required by law, is hereby vested in the holders of the common stock of this corporation.

(b) This corporation hereby reserves the right to increase at will the amount of its capital stock in the manner provided by law and to create additional classes and to issue additional stock of any class at any time as may be determined by the board of directors, and no holder of any stock of this corporation of any class shall have any right to object to or prevent any such increase or the issuance of any such additional stock; and, upon any issue for money or other consideration or in any other manner of any stock of this corporation then authorized but not issued or subscribed for, whether so authorized by these articles of incorporation or by subsequent increase of capital stock in accordance with law, no stockholder of this corporation shall be entitled of right or otherwise to subscribe for, purchase or receive any proportionate share of the stock to be issued, but the board of directors of this corporation may dispose of all such stock issued at its discretion, whether by offering same to stockholders or by sale or other disposition as it may deem advisable.

THIRD: The number of shares of the corporation outstanding at the time of such adoption was 25,333; and the number of shares entitled to vote thereon was 25,333.

FOURTH: The designation and number of outstanding shares of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class were as follows:

Class	(Rate 1)	Number of Shares
Common		25,333

FIFTH: The number of shares voted for such amendment was 19,795; and the number of shares voted against such amendment was None

SIXTH: The number of shares of each class entitled to vote thereon as class voted for and against such amendment, respectively, was;

Class	(Nov. 1)	Number of Shares Voted
		For	Against
Common		19,795	None

SEVENTH: The manner, if not set forth in such amendment, in which any exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares provided for in the amendment shall be effected, is as follows: (note 2)

After five years of existence, no preferred stock had been issued; therefore, the stockholders decided to amend the articles to eliminate preferred stock.

EIGHTH: The manner in which such amendment effects a change in the amount of stated capital, and the amount of stated capital as changed by such amendment, are as follows: (Note 2)

Reduction of authorized capital by $1,000,000.00 or a reduction of 10,000 shares of six (6) per cent preferred stock at the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per share leaving an authorized capital of $1,000,000.00 of common stock.
