RE: Use of the Word "Bank" in Company Name in Idaho

Dear Ms. Schneider:

The Idaho Department of Finance (Department) received your email requesting approval from the Department for your firm's client, BMO Harris Bank National Association (BMO), to register its name with the Idaho Secretary of State, as well as file a certificate of assumed business name to conduct business in Idaho as "Bank of the West." We understand that BMO, which is a nationally chartered bank, merged with Bank of the West in February 2023.

Idaho Code § 26-1202 of the Idaho Bank Act provides that "no person may advertise or transact business in this state under a name or title that contains the word 'bank,' 'banker,' 'bancorp,' 'savings bank,' 'trust company,' or a word or words of similar import, unless the person has been granted a charter to engage in banking or trust business in this state by the director, or unless the director has granted the person a waiver from this prohibition as set forth in this section."

However, Idaho Code § 26-1202(2) states that the "prohibition shall not apply to a national bank, federal thrift or federal savings bank, bank holding company, or a state-chartered bank or trust company located in another state that has obtained all approvals that may be required under the law as a prerequisite to doing business in this state." Since the statute does not apply to a national bank otherwise qualified, there is no need for the Director of the Department to grant a waiver to a nationally chartered financial institution to use the word "bank" in its name in Idaho. Under these circumstances, the Department offers "no objection" to BMO's use of the word "bank" in its own name or in its assumed business name "Bank of the West" and to registering to do business in Idaho.
