(a) This Corporation is organized and at all times hereafter shall be operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. More specifically, this Corporation is organized and at all times hereafter shall be operated exclusively for the benefit of youth within the boundaries of School District 391, with its principal place of business in Kellogg, Idaho. This Corporation shall coordinate fund development programs on behalf of the athletic and educational programs for youth within the boundaries of School District 391 and shall be empowered to receive donations and endowments of every nature for the operation, maintenance, enhancement, and expansion of said programs. This Corporation shall administer funds thus received and disburse them, or the income therefrom where endowment funds are received, to athletic and educational programs set up for the youth within the boundaries of School District 391, all in a manner responsive to the needs of said youth.

(b) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its exempt purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal law, or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE III.

The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify its officers and directors by insurance and otherwise, as specified in Idaho Code 30-3-88.

The Corporation is empowered:

(a) To buy, own, sell, assign, mortgage, or lease any interest in real estate and personal property and to construct, maintain, and operate improvements thereon necessary or incident to the accomplishment of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.

(b) To borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all of the objects of its business, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on the Corporation property.

(c) To do and perform all acts reasonably necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Corporation.

(d) The dissolution of this Corporation shall be conducted in accordance with and be governed by the provisions of the Idaho Code as now or hereafter specified, with the precise details thereof to be as specified in the By-laws of the Corporation. In the event of the termination or dissolution of this Corporation for any reason whatsoever, its remaining assets, if any, shall be distributed to School District 391, or to such other local political subdivision of the State of Idaho that may be in existence at such time. All of the foregoing within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue law. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV.

(a) Management shall be vested in a Board of Directors consisting of ten (10) members, in accordance with the By-laws of this Corporation. They shall serve without compensation. The directors of the Corporation shall, at all times, be limited to individuals who are over the age of eighteen (18) years and residents of School District 391. The names and addresses of the individuals who will serve as the initial directors of the Corporation and the terms for which each shall serve are:
