ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF

SECRETARY OF STATE

SAGEBRUSH REBELLION, INC.

PREAMBLE

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that, pursuant to Section 30-323 of the Idaho Code, we, the undersigned, being natural persons of the age of twenty-one years or more and citizens of the United States of America, acting as incorporators in order to form a non-profit corporation to preserve, defend, promote and enhance the legal and historic private land and water rights, multiple use of public resources by bona fide leaseholders, access to public lands and waters for the maximum number of the recreating public, and to foster an expanding role in the management and control of public lands and waters by state government, all within the limits of responsible, sustained management of the private lands and the responsible multiple use sustained management of the public lands and waters, by means of public education, non-partisan political action, and legal action, do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 3, Title 30, of the Idaho Code:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is SAGEBRUSH REBELLION, INC.

ARTICLE II

This corporation is a non-profit corporation.

ARTICLE III

This corporation is a perpetual entity.

ARTICLE IV

This corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit and shall never be operated for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit. No part of the income nor the assets of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any of its members, directors or officers, or be applied or used for any purpose other than to further the objects and purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE V

The purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:

(1) To foster, promote and increase the knowledge and appreciation of the public, governmental entities, business and other economically interested entities in the proper and equitable use of the natural resources in the western states of the United States of America, with balanced consideration given to the environmental, economic, historic, national, strategic, and aesthetic needs and values involved in the use and conservation of such natural resources.

(2) To preserve, maintain and enhance the rights of users of said natural resources within the purposes of this corporation.

(3) To preserve, establish, foster, and enhance the rights and authority of the several western states to greater ownership and control over land and resources presently under the control of the federal government of the United States.

(4) To undertake and engage in litigation to preserve and enhance such proper, balanced use and conservation of said natural resources.

(5) To assist members of the general public, governmental entities, businesses, and other organizations in providing legal representation on matters of public interest with regard to the proper, balanced use and conservation of said resources.

(6) To engage in legal research, study and analysis for the benefit of the general public, governmental entities, and users of said natural resources as to the effect of evolving concepts of the law with respect to use and conservation of such natural resources.

(7) To foster and encourage research and study regarding such proper and equitable use of said natural resources.

(8) To undertake and participate in educational activities related to the foregoing purposes of this corporation.

(9) To conduct and sponsor forums, lectures, debates and similar programs related to the foregoing purposes of this corporation to preserve and enhance the proper, balanced use and conservation of said natural resources against unwarranted governmental intrusion and over-regulation by means of litigation, educational activities and use of the political process.

ARTICLE VI

Organized for the aforestated purposes, and operating without a profit, this corporation shall have and exercise any and all powers and privileges now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of Idaho upon non-profit corporations formed under Chapter 3, Title 30, of the Idaho Code; provided, however, in all events and under all circumstances and notwithstanding merger, consolidation, reorganization, termination, dissolution, winding up of this corporation, voluntarily or involuntarily or by operation of law, or upon amendment of the Articles of Incorporation:

(a) this corporation shall not have or exercise any power or authority either expressly, by interpretation, or by operation of law, nor shall it directly or indirectly engage in any activity that would prevent it from qualifying as a non-profit organization in a manner to receive tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(6), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended;

(b) no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article V, above;

(c) the corporation shall not apply accumulation of income in any manner which may subject it to the denial of exemption as provided in Section 504 of the Internal Revenue Code as now enacted or as it may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE VII

This corporation shall have two classes of members: (a) Individuals; and (b) organizations. The rights and privileges of membership of each class shall be set forth in the bylaws. The corporation may issue certificates or cards of membership; however, evidence of membership shall be established by a membership roster maintained by the corporation.

The qualifications of membership, the terms and conditions of admission to membership, and the time, mode, conditions and effect of admission, expulsion, withdrawal from, and restoration to membership shall be as provided for in the bylaws.

ARTICLE VIII

The affairs of this corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. The number, qualifications, terms of office, manner of election, provisions for meeting, and powers and duties of the directors shall be prescribed in the bylaws. The members of the board of directors shall serve for two (2) year terms, provided that said terms shall be staggered so that approximately one-half of the board is elected at each annual meeting. The initial board of directors shall consist of _____ members. With regard to the initial board of directors, the terms of one-half of the members shall expire at the first annual meeting of the corporation following their appointment by the incorporators, and the terms of the other half of the directors shall expire at the second annual meeting following their appointment.

ARTICLE IX

The offices of this corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents as may be prescribed by the bylaws, a secretary, and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the board of directors at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such other officers and assistant officers and agents, including an executive director, may be elected or appointed by the board of directors or chosen in such other manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. The powers, duties and manner of election of officers and assistant officers, and the appointment of agents, such as an executive director, shall be set forth in the bylaws.

ARTICLE X

Standing committees, such as are provided for in the bylaws, shall have and exercise their described authority subject to the direction and control of the board of directors in the management of the affairs of the corporation. The designation of such committees and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any individual director, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law. Each standing committee shall consist of three (3) or more persons, at least one of whom is a member of the board of directors.

ARTICLE XI

The members of this corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the corporation.

ARTICLE XII

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such non-profit organization or organization organized and operated exclusively for the purposes of this corporation hereinabove set forth, as the board of directors shall determine.

ARTICLE XIII

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall be made in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 30-326 of the Idaho Code, to-wit:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members, which may be either an annual or special meeting. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting. The notice shall state the place, day or hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, and shall be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the discretion of the president or the secretary, or the officers or persons calling the meeting, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving at least a majority of the votes which members present at the meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or by a vice president or by its secretary or an assistant secretary. The articles of amendment shall be verified by one of the persons who executes them and shall set forth the information required in Section 30-327 of the Idaho Code.

(3) To the extent the foregoing procedures for amendment of the Articles of Incorporation may ever conflict with statutory procedures for such amendment, the statutory provisions shall prevail and be followed.

ARTICLE XIV

The address of the registered office of the corporation is Suite 614, Empire Building, Tenth and Idaho, Post Office Box 893, Boise, Idaho 83701, and the name of the registered agent of the corporation who may be found at that address is Vernon F. Ravenscroft.
