The name of the corporation is Latah/Nez Perce Voices for Human Rights, Inc.

II. STATE OF INCORPORATION.

The corporation is an Idaho nonprofit corporation organized under the provisions of the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act.

III. DURATION.

The period of duration of the corporation is perpetual.

IV. PURPOSES.

The corporation is organized exclusively for the promotion of social welfare and for all other lawful purposes.

V. NONPROFIT STATUS AND POWERS.

The corporation shall have all powers necessary to accomplish its purposes stated in Article IV. However it shall not carry on any activity or have any power that is not permitted to a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(4) of the United States Internal Revenue Code.

The corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit. It shall not have the power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends, and no part of its net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or other individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the corporation in carrying out its nonprofit purposes.

The corporation is not empowered to campaign for the election or defeat of any candidate for political office, nor shall any of its funds be used to contribute to the campaigns of political candidates. The corporation is further prohibited from endorsing or opposing any particular political candidate. However, subject to the purposes stated in Article IV, it may educate the public regarding the views of candidates for and holders of public offices on issues and may promote or oppose particular legislation, ballot measures, constitutional provisions or regulatory provisions affecting the social welfare, including but not limited to human and civil rights.

The balance, if any, of all moneys received by the corporation from its activities, after the payment in full of all debts and obligations of the corporation of whatever kind or nature, shall be used exclusively for the social welfare purposes set forth above in Article IV.

VI. MEMBERS

The corporation shall have one class of members. Members shall have such rights and responsibilities as are provided in the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act that are consistent with the management authority that these Articles grant the board of directors of the Corporation. Members shall be those persons who complete a membership application and pay membership dues as determined by the board of directors. The board of directors shall constitute the first group of members.

VII. DIRECTION AND CONTROL.

Direction and control of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a board of directors, consisting of not less than three (3) and no more than fifteen (15) persons. The corporation's bylaws may specify a different number of directors.

Directors of the corporation shall be elected by the members of the corporation every two years. Each director of the Corporation shall at all time be a member of the Corporation.

All directors shall serve a term of two (2) years after election, except that a director elected to serve in a vacant position shall serve until the balance of the term has expired. Directors may be re-elected, and there shall be no limitation on the number of terms they may serve. Vacancies shall be filled by election by the remaining directors.

VIII. DISSOLUTION.

In the event of the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, or to such nonprofit organization or organizations which have substantially similar purposes and qualify as tax exempt.
