ARTICLE IV. PURPOSE AND POWERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

This Association does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit for itself or its Members. The specific purposes for which the Association is formed are to provide preservation and architectural control of the residential lots and common areas within the Baja Springs Subdivision. Also, to promote the health, safety and welfare of the residents within the above-described real property.

The Association shall have the power to do everything necessary, proper, advisable or convenient for the accomplishment of the purposes set forth in this Articles and to do all other things incident thereto or connected therewith which are not forbidden by the Act, by other law or by these Articles.

The Association shall have the right to exercise all of the powers and privileges and to perform all of the duties and obligations of the Grantor as set forth in the Master Declaration recorded in the office of the County of Recorder of Canyon County, Idaho, and as the same may be amended from time to time as therein provided, said Master Declaration being incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

The Association may fix, levy and collect payment of dues, to pay all office and other expenses incident to the conduct of the business of the Association, including all licenses, taxes or governmental charges levied or imposed against the property of the Association.

The Association may acquire (by gift, purchase or otherwise), own, hold, improve, build upon, operate, maintain, convey, sell, lease, transfer, dedicate for public use or otherwise dispose of real or personal property in connection with the affairs of the Association.

The Association may borrow money and, with the assent of two-thirds (2/3) of the Members, mortgage, pledge, deed in trust or hypothecate any or all of its real or personal property as security for money borrowed or debts incurring.

The Association may dedicate, sell or transfer all or any part of any common area to any public agency, authority or utility for such purposes and subject to such conditions as may be agreed to by the Members. No such dedication or transfer shall be effective unless an instrument has been signed by two-thirds (2/3) of the Members agreeing to such dedication, sale or transfer.

The Association may participate in mergers and consolidations with other non-profit corporations organized for the same purposes, or annex additional residential property and common area, provided that any such merger, consolidation or annexation shall have the assent of two-thirds (2/3) of the Members.

The Association shall have to right to exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges under the Act as it now exists or may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP

Every person or entity who is a record owner of a fee or undivided fee interest in any Lot which is subject to covenants of record or the Master Declaration is hereby a Member of the Association. The foregoing is not intended to include persons or entities who hold an interest merely as security for the performance of an obligation. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any lot which is subject to covenants of record or the Master Declaration.

ARTICLE VI. VOTING RIGHTS

The Association shall have two (2) classes of voting Membership as follows:

Class A: Class A Members, which shall not include J&V Construction, LLC, an Idaho limited liability, during the period when J&V Construction, LLC is a Class B Member. Each Class A Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot owned.

Class B: The sole Class B Member shall be J&V Construction, LLC, an Idaho limited liability, who shall be entitled to six (6) votes for each Lot owned. The Class B Membership shall cease and be automatically converted to Class A Membership and voting (one Class A Membership for each Lot then owned) upon the happening of either of the following events, whichever occurs first: (i) When the total votes outstanding in Class A Membership equal or exceed the total votes outstanding in the Class B Membership; or (ii) July 1, 2032.

ARTICLE VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three (3) persons. Directors are not required to be Members of the Association. The number of directors may be changed by amendment to either these Articles or the Bylaws of the Association. The names and addresses of the persons who are to act in the capacity of directors until the selection of their successors and who constitute the Association's initial directors are:

ARTICLE VIII. DISSOLUTION

The Association may be dissolved with the assent given in writing and signed by not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Members. Upon dissolution of the Association, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets of the Association shall be dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be used for purposes similar to those for which this Association was created. In the event that such dedication is refused acceptance, such assets shall be granted, conveyed or assigned to any non-profit corporation, association, trust or other organization to be devoted to such similar purposes.

ARTICLE IX. DURATION

The Association shall exist perpetually.

ARTICLE X. EXEMPTION

This Association is a corporation intended to be classified as a 'homeowners association' which, pursuant to §528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, is considered an organization exempt from income taxes for the purposes of any law which refers to organizations exempt from income taxes. Further, this Association is a residential real estate management association organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of property owned by the Association. All provisions of these Articles shall be interpreted in accordance with the provisions of §528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and in case of a conflict between that or other applicable sections, any provision of these Articles so in conflict with either shall be interpreted to be consistent with that provision of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE XI. BYLAWS

The Board shall have the right to make, adopt and amend Bylaws for the Association, consistent with existing law and consistent with these Articles and the Master Declaration, for the government of the affairs of the Association and the management of its properties.
