ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
RAPE CRISIS CENTER
OF CANYON COUNTY, INC.

APR 16 4 23 PM '86
CLERK OF STATE

We, the undersigned, being natural persons of full age and citizens of The United States of America, in order to form a non-profit corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated and pursuant to the provisions of Sections 30-301 through 30-332 of the Idaho Code, and all acts amendatory thereto and supplemental thereof, do hereby certify as follows:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be "Rape Crisis Center of Canyon County, Inc."

ARTICLE II

This corporation is one which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof. The purposes for which this corporation is created are charitable and educational, and shall never include pecuniary profits, gain or private advantage for the incorporators, trustees, officers, agents, or for the corporation. The purposes for which said corporation is formed are:

- A. To provide counseling, crisis services, and moral support to victims of sexual assault and to their families in order to minimize the effects of assault on the lives of victims and families; to provide continuing information and education to Canyon County residents and to other communities developing similar programs; to reduce the actual number of rapes that occur; to increase the number of arrests and convictions of rapists; and to develop and implement a comprehensive information and referral service of community resources for victims of rape;
- B. To generally engage in, conduct, promote, support, or contribute to any activities, projects, businesses or endeavors whose purposes are solely charitable or educational and which do not in any way contemplate pecuniary gain or profit;
- C. To receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended;

D. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any officer of the corporation or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, officer of the corporation or private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation;

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of this certificate, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended;

- F. Upon the dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE III

As a means of accomplishing the foregoing purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers:

- A. To accept, acquire, receive, take and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order or decree or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature or description, and wherever situate, and to sell, convey and dispose of any such property or funds and to invest or reinvest the principal thereof in such manner as it may see fit, and to deal and expend the income therefrom or any principal for any of the purposes of the corporation without limitations, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in any instrument under which any property is received, and any limitations under the laws of the State of Idaho regulating the powers of non-profit corporations, and providing that such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended;

- B. To receive any property, real or personal, in trust under the terms of any Will, Deed of Trust, or any other trust instrument for the purposes of this corporation and in administering the same to carry out the directions and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which any property is received, including the expenditure of principal as well as income for such purposes if authorized or directed in such trust instrument;
- C. To acquire by purchase or lease, or otherwise, land and interest in lands, and to own, hold, improve, develop and manage any real estate so acquired and to erect or cause to be erected on any lands owned, held or occupied by the corporation, buildings or other structures with their appurtenances, and to rebuild, enlarge, alter or improve any buildings or structures now or hereafter erected on any lands so owned, held or occupied, and to mortgage, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any lands or interests in lands and in buildings or other structures and any part of any buildings or other structures of any kind owned or held by the corporation;

- D. To receive, take title to, own, hold, use, invest and reinvest its funds in such stocks, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages and in such other securities and properties as its membership shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant or gift, provided that such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, and while the owner of any stocks to vote the same as a natural person could do;
- E. To enter into contracts or obligations of any type or kind essential, necessary or proper to the transaction of its ordinary affairs, or for the purposes of the corporation;
- F. To appoint agents, subagents and enter into all necessary contracts with agents and subagents;

- G. To borrow money and otherwise incur indebtedness in the manner provided for in the By-Laws of the corporation and to draw, make, accept, endorse, transfer, assign, guarantee, execute and issue bonds, debentures notes, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, negotiable instruments and all other instruments and contracts for the payment of money, negotiable or non-negotiable, and whether secured or unsecured;
- H. To convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer upon trust or otherwise dispose of all property, real or personal; to lend money; to sue and to be sued; to conduct its affairs in the State of Idaho;
- I. In general, and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which are not or hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth, or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred, or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the corporation, subject to the further limitation and condition that, notwithstanding any other provisions of this certificate, only such powers shall be exercised as are in furtherance of the tax exempt purposes of the corporation, and as may be exercised by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, and by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
