Section 2. By-Laws. The initial By-Laws of this Corporation shall be adopted by its Board of Directors. The power to amend or repeal the By-Laws or to adopt new By-Laws shall

The By-Laws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of this corporation which are consistent with the Idaho Business Corporation Act and these Articles of Incorporation.

Section 3. Compensation of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to make provision for reasonable compensation to its members for their services as directors and fix the basis and conditions upon which this compensation shall be paid. Any director may also serve the corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation therefrom in any form.

Section 4. Contracts in which Directors or Officers Have an Interest. No contract or other transaction between this corporation and one or more of its directors or officers or any other corporation, firm, association, or other entity in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable for this reason alone, or by reason alone that such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board or as a committee thereof which approves, authorizes or ratifies such contract or transaction, or that his or their votes are counted for such purpose, if:

a. The fact of such common directorship, officership, or financial interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee thereof which approves, authorizes or ratifies such contract or transaction by a vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the votes of such interested director or directors; or

b. The fact of such common directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they approve, authorize or ratify such

The Corporation shall indemnify any and all of its directors or officers or former directors or officers against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation; and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding if he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim or matter as to which such director or officer shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation. Any indemnification under this section (unless so ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth herein. Such determination shall be made either

a. By a majority of the Board of Directors other than those involved in the action or proceeding, if a quorum of disinterested directors exists; or

b. By a written opinion of independent legal counsel, if no quorum of such disinterested directors exists, or even if such a quorum of disinterested directors exists if they so direct such a written opinion; or
