Article 2

Boise Acupuncture Cooperative Inc. is a non-profit Corporation and shall be operated exclusively for charitable purposes in the promotion of health and shall not be operated, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of private interests.

The Corporation shall engage primarily in activities which accomplish the following purposes:

- a) To improve the quality of life in our community by providing relief from pain, discomfort, stress, isolation, and financial burdens of acute and chronic illness by providing complementary and alternative health care services, primarily acupuncture.
- b) To serve everyone in the community regardless of their ability to pay.
- c) To serve all individuals regardless of sex, race, color, income, national origin, age, ability or disability, marital status, gender, familial situation, religion, size, shape, sexual orientation, veteran status, or political beliefs.
- d) To provide affordable acupuncture services in a community setting.
- e) To provide affordable complementary and alternative healthcare and affordable products and services that supplement, complement, or enhance the acupuncture treatments.
- f) To provide support advice and mentoring to individuals wishing to open a new, or improve an existing, community acupuncture practice.
- g) To provide community support, education, and outreach in the subject of alternative and complementary medicine and health.
- h) To provide pro bono/charity acupuncture treatments, at the discretion of the Management Collaborative, when a need is present.

Article 8

· Distribution upon Dissolution. Upon termination or dissolution of the Corporation any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Internal Revenue Code (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.
