RECEIVED
SEC OF STATE

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION 1988 DEC 27 AM 10 13
of
THE AHMAN HOUSE INSTITUTE INC.

ARTICLE I

NAME:

The name of this corporation is: THE AHMAN HOUSE INSTITUTE INC.

ARTICLE II

NON-PROFIT:

This is a non-profit, non-stock corporation organized under Title 30, Chapter 3, Idaho Code, Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act, 1986. This corporation shall not issue stock, or shares of any kind, now, or at any time in the future.

ARTICLE III

DURATION:

This corporation shall have perpetual existence; but it may be dissolved by a majority vote of its members at any time in compliance with the provisions of the appropriate State Laws governing the dissolution of corporations.

ARTICLE IV

PURPOSE:

The nature of the business and the objects and purposes proposed to be carried on, promoted and transacted, are to do any or all things herein mentioned as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, or accomplish, and in any part of the world, viz:

The purpose of this non-profit corporation is to engage in any lawful act, and or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the corporate Laws and Statutes of the State of Idaho, as they now exist, or as they may be amended, and be in force and apply at any future time.

The Ahman House Institute, along with its subsidiary operatives, whether named or not named herein, without exception and to the exclusion of nothing identified, or unidentified, shall have the authority, be empowered and have the right to establish, maintain, operate and own agencies, businesses, buildings, equipment, facilities, objects, land, private schools colleges, universities, institutes, publishing concerns, and any and all other concerns and properties which may be deemed useful by the Board of Directors in carrying out the goals, objectives and purposes of this corporation, viz:

To advance human knowledge, provide spiritual enlightenment, and to foster and promote world peace through education and by providing instruction for all mankind in the way of peace through the inculcation of correct and true principles in shaping the attitudes and behaviors of peace among all nations, kindreds, tongues and people on the earth.

To promote as scripture for this generation and generations hereafter, the book entitled: The Song of God, which book was written by Azrael, The Teacher of Righteousness.

In furtherance of the foregoing goals, objectives, and purposes the corporation shall base its teachings, actions, and corporate decisions upon the principles established through the writings, teachings, and counsel of Azrael. Furthermore, this corporation shall have authority, be empowered and have the right to engage in any other business enterprise, whether it be similar to the aforementioned operatives or otherwise, which the Board of Directors may deem advisable.

The foregoing delineation of specific goals, objectives and purposes of this corporation shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner its goals, objectives, objects and purposes, or its authority, power and rights. Rather, it shall be in furtherance of and in addition to, and not in limitation of the general powers of the corporation as delineated in and conferred by the Corporation Laws and Statutes embodied in the Idaho Code, all of which powers this corporation shall be given, have and enjoy to the fullest extent possible.

ARTICLE V

MEMBERS AND OWNERS:

No agency, business, institution, association, organization, society, fellowship, person or group of persons may claim ownership of this corporation based upon their membership in or affiliation with this corporation. Ahman House Institute, Inc., is an independent and wholly unowned corporate entity. Membership in this corporation is granted to any and all persons who desire to further the writings, teachings and person of Azrael. The use of the term, member, does not convey or imply ownership of this corporation in any way.

ARTICLE VI

NPCLI AND BY-LAWS:

The activities and affairs of this corporation shall be conducted strictly in accordance with the Non-Profit Corporation Laws of Idaho, with the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as it applies, with this corporation's By-Laws and with the policies formulated and adopted by the board of directors. The Board of Directors is expressly authorized to make, amend, change and repeal this corporation's By-Laws and Policies at any time without requiring a change of any kind in these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE VII

EARNINGS AND TAX STATUS:

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to the chairman of the board, to the board of directors, to any of its appointed officers, to other private persons, or to its employees, except this corporation has authority, is empowered and has the right to pay reasonable compensation (in the form of employee benefits salaries and wages) to the chairman of the board, to the directors, to their appointed officers, to other private persons for operational expenses of the corporation and to all corporate employees, for services rendered in furtherance of the goals, objectives, ends and purposes set forth in Article IV of these Articles of Incorporation.

No part of the activities and affairs of this corporation shall be the carrying on of any propaganda designed to intervene in (including the publications and distribution of literature and statements) any political campaign in behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office, or on behalf of any politically oriented entity or group involving public trust.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or (b) by a corporation, the contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, 1954, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Code relative to the foregoing sections as given, and, or under Title 30, Chapter 3 of the Idaho Code, Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act, 1986, as it now exists, or as it may be amended and exist and be in force in the future.

ARTICLE VIII

DISSOLUTION:

This corporation may be dissolved and wind-up its affairs when: at a specific meeting called for the expressed purpose of considering a dissolution, a unanimous vote of the board of directors is recorded in favor of such action. Upon adoption of such a resolution, the board of directors shall ask for a vote of the general membership to decide the issue. A majority vote by the membership in favor of the resolution shall dissolve this corporation. The board of directors shall then cease to conduct all but those corporate affairs required for dissolution. Accordingly, the board of directors shall immediately cause a notice of the proposed dissolution to be mailed to each known creditor of the corporation and to the Secretary of State.

Upon completion of the foregoing, the board of directors shall convert all the corporate assets to cash and pay all creditors in full. All remaining, or surplus assets shall be conveyed to established charitable, educational, religious of pure science organizations qualified for tax exemption under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as the board of directors may elect, as the Code may now apply, or as it may be amended and apply in the future.

ARTICLE IX

REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT:

The registered principal office of this corporation may be moved from time to time, at the discretion of the Board of Directors for the good of the corporation without requiring an amendment to or a change of any kind in this document. This corporation's current registered principal office address is: 3844 Jason, Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, 43204.

The initial registered principal agent of this corporation shall be the Chairman of the Board, who shall not serve a term of office longer than four years. Such authority, power, right and perogative as he shall exercise on behalf of the corporation is granted to him by a majority consensus of the board of directors. This corporation's current registered principal agent is: Vincent D. Whaley. Vincent resides at 3844 Jason, Pocatello, Idaho, 83204.

ARTICLE X

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Under the guidance of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the activities, affairs and business of this corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole board shall be such as from time to time shall be fixed by, or in a manner provided by the By-Laws; but in no case shall the number be less than is required by law. The number of directors required for a quorum shall be specified in the corporate By-Laws.

The Board of Directors is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal sucy By-Laws as may be required to organize the corporate business structure to secure its ends in accomplishing this corporation's goals, objectives and purposes. The Board of Directors shall formulate and adopt By-Laws and Policies which shall be observed by all corporate personnel. Provisions shall be made in the By-Laws for the appointment of directors, appointed officers and employees, to establish the conditions and terms of appointment, retirement and dismissal procedures, and the methods for selecting and qualifying successors.

Directors, appointed officers and employees, unless dismissed for cause, are employed by this corporation to serve their respective capacities, until such time as their successors are duly qualified.

The structure of the board of directors and of the corporate organization may change at any time without requiring an amendment or change of any kind in these Articles of Incorporation.

The Chairman of the Board and the Board of Directors of this corporation have equal authority in conducting the business affairs of the corporation; but when a decision has to be made, in the face of a tie vote by the members of the board, the Chairman of the Board of Directors has the prerogative of making the final decision, and the directors are bound to accept and support the chairman's decision.

The equal authority of the Board of Directors shall take precedence over the actions of the chairman of the board only when the chairman of the board has been officially declared incapacitated and incompetent. Such declaration shall be made in accordance with the provisions made in the By-Laws. In the event that the chairman has been declared incapacitated and incompetent, the Board of Directors shall have authority, power and the right to conduct all corporate affairs until such time as the chairman of the board of directors recovers fully from his condition or incompetency. In the event the chairman's condition proves to be permanent and not correctable, the board of directors, who shall have the same authority, shall appoint a new director who will then serve a term of office not to exceed four years.

The current registered members of the Board of Directors of this corporation, as now constituted, are also the incorporators of the same; and they shall hold, function in and continue to serve in their respective offices until their respective successors have been qualified. Beginning with the chairman of the board of directors, the directors are:

ARTICLE XI

CORPORATE POWERS:

This corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any or all of the provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in its Board Policies and in its By-Laws, in the manner reserved to it as a corporate entity organized under the statutes of the State of Idaho. It also reserves the authority, the powers and rights required to make organizational changes in its corporate structure as may be required to assure its success in achieving its established goals, objectives and purposes as set forth in Article IV.

This corporation may, in its By-Laws, confer authority, powers and rights on the Board of Directors, and on the Chairman of the Board, in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to any other authority, powers and rights bestowed or conferred on it as a corporate entity by Statute, viz: the authority, powers and rights, indentified or unidentified in the Statutes, nor reserved strictly to the State, nor forbidden by Statute to this corporation.

The foregoing delineation of specific authority, powers and rights shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the authority, power, rights, objects, objectives and purposes of this corporation. Rather, it shall be in furtherance of and in addition to, and not in limitation of any authority, power and rights conferred on this corporation by the Non-Profit Corporation Laws of Idaho, named of unnamed therein, all of which authority, powers and rights this corporation shall have in the fullest extent.
