VI.

The purposes for which said corporation is organized are as follows:

A. To carry on the business of marketing and manufacturing fuel heaters, and all related activities.

B. To purchase, own, and sell all types of business equipment, business machines and personal property and to hypothecate same; to deal in, lease and broker leases of all types of business equipment and personal property.

C. To buy, own, sell, hypothecate, and to have the power to do each and every thing necessary to deal in real property.

D. To acquire and take over as a going concern and thereafter to carry on the business of any person, firm or corporation engaged in any business which this corporation is authorized to conduct and in connection therewith, to acquire the good will and all or any of the assets and to conduct or otherwise provide for all or any of such businesses.

E. To borrow money for its corporate purposes and to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures or other obligations from time to time for the purchase of property for any purpose in or about the business of the corporation, and if deemed proper, to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or otherwise.

F. To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of every sort and kind which may be necessary and convenient for the business of the corporation with any person, firm, corporation, association, body politic, state or other form of government so far as and to the same extent that the same may be done and performed by corporations organized under the laws of the State of Idaho.

G. To act as employee, agent, trustee, receiver, liquidator, manager or broker or in any other capacity with respect to the establishment or promotion of corporations, associations, undertakings, businesses or enterprises of any description; to purchase, lease, own, acquire, deal in, sell, convey or assign any rights, franchises or privileges necessary or convenient in the creation, establishment, promotion or liquidation of enterprises, businesses or undertakings.

H. To buy, sell, discount and deal in all types of securities, whether negotiable or otherwise, including, but not limited to, bills of exchange, notes, bonds, debentures, warrants and corporate stock, including the stock of this corporation; to give or receive security therefor by mortgage, pledge, or in any other fashion authorized by law.

I. To carry on a general manufacturing, wholesale, and retail merchandising business; to purchase or deal in or dispose of patents, patent rights, licenses, trademarks, tradenames, and secret devices or processes of every kind or description; to own, acquire, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in real estate of all kinds including water rights, ditches, canals, and other appurtenances to real estate.

J. To have the power to transact any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Idaho Business Corporation Act.

K. To do all acts and things necessary to carry out the purposes and intent expressed in the above provisions, and each and every necessary, suitable or advisable act or thing for the accomplishment thereof.

VII.

The power to repeal and amend the By-Laws and adopt new By-Laws is hereby conferred upon the directors, as well as upon the shareholders, to be exercised by such vote of the directors or of the allotted shares as the case may be; provided, however, not less than a majority thereof as may be fixed by the By-Laws. The Board of Directors may from time to time distribute to its shareholders out of capital surplus of the corporation a portion of its assets in cash or in property.

VIII.

No contract or other transaction between the corporation or any other corporation, whether or not a majority of the shares of the capital stock of such other corporation is owned by the corporation, and no act of the corporation shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of the corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are directors, or officers of such other corporation; any director individually may be a party to or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any contract or transaction of the corporation and any director of the corporation who is so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the company which shall authorize such contract or transaction and may vote thereon to authorize such contract or transaction with like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation and not so interested.
