ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF LIFE INCORPORATED

The undersigned, citizens of the United States, desiring to form a non-profit corporation under the general non-profit corporation laws of Idaho, do hereby certify:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation shall be "Life Incorporated"

ARTICLE II

The place in this state where the principal office of the corporation is to be located is in Bonners Ferry, Idaho. The name and address of the registered agent is: Randy Prewitt, HCR 60 Box 96A, Bonners Ferry, Idaho 83805. Any future change of the registered agent or his address will be given by letter signed by the officers and duly authenticated. These Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws may be amended if need for the same arises on the basis or procedure set forth in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE III

Life Incorporated is a non-profit corporation organized in perpetuity, exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes. It shall have as its purposes the making and distributions of monies, materials, equipment and furnishings of personnel to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). The property and assets of this corporation are irrevocably dedicated to charitable, religious, and educational purposes in the furtherance of which it will operate as herein after set forth:

(a) The corporation will establish and maintain and operate exclusively as a charitable, religious, and educational organization in Idaho, as needs arise and opportunity and funds are available for so doing.

(b) In effectuating this program, Life Incorporated, will operate from a training and headquarters center located in Bonners Ferry, where: (1) Youth and older persons will be taught and trained in industrial arts, educational fields, and vocational areas--i.e. a) carpentry and its allied trades--plumbing, electrical wiring and maintenance of the same, b) agriculture in its varied phases, c) humanitarian community welfare services where the sick, aged, handicapped and underprivileged will be helped and taught how to find health and maintain the same. This will include diet, sanitation and simple ways and means to maintain their health and well-being, 2) a headquarters and training building as an operational center where the various activities shall be planned, co-ordinated and carried out. It will include offices, a lecture hall, demonstration rooms, library and reading rooms, counselling rooms, group therapy rooms and school classrooms, 3) the support of public worship, community welfare undertakings locally and in other areas of (state, county, etc.) the securing of quarters for such operations and aiding them in their program provided that they meet the laws wherein they operate and further that these comply with provisions of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in establishing churches, schools, mission stations, clinics and community welfare center, 4) research in fields of education, public health, and religion. Criteria for the selection of students, needy persons to be aided, the extent of charity, individually and as organizations, will be set up and made a part of the By-Laws of Life Incorporated Institution. The program to be established shall be undenominational and non-sectarian without regard to race or creed insofar that any needy, underprivileged, worthy and approved person or persons may be accepted as students, trainees, or patients, but it shall be sectarian and denominational to the extent that the religious doctrines taught and encouraged shall be those of the Bible as held by the Seventh-day Adventist body of believers. In all of its efforts for the help and betterment of mankind, physically, intellectually, socially and spiritually, the program of the Institute will be carried forward on the broad basis of Christian charity for the purpose of helping all people to know God and accept the gift of eternal life.

ARTICLE IV

The general powers of said corporation are:

(a) To sue and be sued by the corporation name, (b) To have and use a common seal, if deemed necessary, that it may alter or change by action of the Board of Directors in the form of a resolution stating the reasons therefore. If no common seal is used, the signature or name of the corporation shall be exercised by the authorized officers, such making it legal and binding upon the Institute. (c) The power to receive property--real or personal--by purchase, gift, devise, legacy or bequest; and sell the same and apply the proceeds toward the promotion of the objectives for which this corporation is being created; or hold such property and apply the income and proceeds toward the corporations's objectives. (d) To establish by-laws, rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of Idaho as needed for the operation and management of corporation officers and directors, but in addition such subordinate officers, agents and employees as the corporation may require. (e) To borrow money to be used in the payment of the property and/or buildings needed to carry out the purposes and objectives of the corporation, and secure the repayment of the money thus borrowed by mortgage pledge or deed of trust, using property--real, personal or mixed--which may be owned by the Institute to secure any indebtedness it may lawfully contract.

ARTICLE V

1. Dr. Randy & Heidi Prewitt, P.O. 157, Bonners Ferry, Idaho 83805
2. David & Rosanna Reid, HCR 60 Box 96A, Bonners Ferry, Idaho
3. Mike & Judy Baugher, HCR 85 Box 308, Bonners Ferry, Idaho 83805

ARTICLE VI

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in article III of this Articles of Incorporation of Life Incorporated. No part of the assets or the use of officers and personnel of the corporation shall be utilized in carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. This does not circumscribe the individuals exercising their franchise as individuals. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on or engage in any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from the Federal Income Tax and further will not engage in any activities contrary to the laws of Idaho.

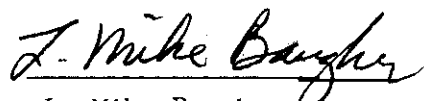

ARTICLE VII

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, if such occasion arises, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations as are organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under the Internal Revenue Service, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Board of Directors, or by the Municipal Authorities which have to do with such matters in which the principal office of the corporation is then located and, further, that they be operated exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine and which are organized and operated exclusively for religious, educational and charitable purposes.
