Code of 1954, as amended, of the United States of America.

In furtherance of its nonprofit, tax-exempt purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers and authority: however, the corporation shall not be empowered, and is prohibited from, engaging in any activity which is not allowed pursuant to Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, of the United States of America:

(a) To operate under the name as set forth in Article I above:

(b) To employ qualified legal counsel and other necessary personnel to carry out the purposes of this corporation:

(c) To accept financial contributions:

(d) To conduct its activities in accordance with and subject to all applicable State and Federal laws and regulations:

(e) To adopt and use a corporate seal:

(f) To make contracts:

(g) By its Board of Trustees to appoint such officers and employees as may be decreed proper: define their authority and duties: fix their compensation: require bonds of such of them as it deems advisable and fix the penalty thereof: dismiss such officers or employees, or any thereof for any good reason and appoint others to fill their places:

2 - ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

- (h) To adopt bylaws regulating and establishing:
 - (1) A definite and distinct ecclesiastical government;
 - (2) A formal code of doctrine and discipline;
 - (3) A congregational membership not associated with any church and/or denomination;
 - (4) An organization of ordained ministers ministering to the congregation;
 - (5) A system of ordaining ministers after completing prescribed courses of study;
 - (6) A literature of the church;
 - (7) Regular religious services;
 - (8) Sunday Schools and seminars for the instruction of the young and old; and
 - (9) Schools for the preparation of its ministers:
- (i) To minister sacerdotal functions and conduct regular religious worship services;
- (j) To adopt and assume names in the furtherance of its nonprofit, tax-exempt purposes;
- (k) To use any and all media, including but not limited to, print, television and radio, in the furtherance of its nonprofit, tax-exempt purposes;
- (l) To conduct seminars in the furtherance of its tax-exempt purposes;
- (m) To provide a local place for the worship of

Almighty God, Our Heavenly Father:

(n) To provide for Christian fellowship for those of like faith, where the Holy Spirit and Jesus, the Son of God, may be honored according to our distinctive testimony:

(o) To assume our share of the responsibility and the privilege of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ:

(p) To acquire, hold, operate, mortgage, hypothecate, and dispose of any property (real, personal, or mixed) whenever necessary or appropriate to the carrying out of its nonprofit, tax-exempt purposes; and

(q) To exercise such incidental powers as may reasonably be necessary to carry out the purposes for which the corporation is established, provided that such incidental powers shall be exercised in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt status as a religious organization as set forth in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, of the United States of America, nor shall any member, private individual or business entity.

ARTICLE IV

The number of trustees, and their qualifications, of this corporation shall be established in the bylaws of this corporation. The Board of Trustees shall be the only voting members of the corporation and shall conduct all of the business of the corporation except as specifically delegated.

ARTICLE V

This nonprofit corporation is formed without any purpose of pecuniary profit to itself or its members and shall have no capital stock.

ARTICLE VI

The private property of the trustees and members of the congregation shall be non-assessable and shall not be subject to the payment of any corporate debts, nor shall the trustees or members of the corporation become individually or corporately liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII

Upon dissolution of the corporation for any cause, all of the assets and property, both real and personal, then owned or controlled by this corporation shall revert to and become the property of an eleemosynary institution accorded tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, of the United States of America, to be designated by the Board of Trustees: provided, however, that the just debts and liabilities of the corporation shall first be paid. Upon dissolution, none of the assets or property of the corporation shall devolve to the benefit of any private individual or business entity of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

These Articles may be amended at any regular meeting of the membership of the corporation, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, by two-thirds (2/3) majority.

ARTICLE IX

The undersigned incorporators shall act as the initial Board of Trustees until their successors shall have been duly qualified and elected.

DATED THIS 29 day of July, 1996.
