IMPORTANT NOTICE CONCERNING PURCHASES "FOR RESALE" MISUSE OF RESALE CERTIFICATES

One of the rights granted to holders of seller's permits is the authority to issue resale certificates for merchandise they intend to resell. The permit is not a "buyer's" license to purchase property at wholesale for personal or business use. Such misuse of a resale certificate for the purpose of evading payment of the sales or use tax constitutes a violation of the Law.

We are bringing this to your attention because of recent reports of serious abuses, including purchases under fraudulent resale certificates, and the deliberate failure of some taxpayers to subsequently report and pay the use tax on these purchases. These reports are being investigated by the Commission's staff, and those persons who are found to have made illegal use of their permits may be subject to one or more of the following penalties:

1. Criminal prosecution. This could lead to a fine up to $1,000.00, imprisonment up to one year, or both, for each offense.
2. A 5% penalty for failure to comply with rules and regulations.
3. A 50% penalty for fraud, or intent to evade the tax, on all unreported tax liability.
4. Revocation of the seller's permit.

If you have any questions concerning your rights and obligations in connection with the purchase of property for purposes other than resale, please contact your nearest State Tax Commission office.
