

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE DAVIS STITT COMPANY.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that the undersigned adult residents of the City and County of Marinette, in the State of Wisconsin, do hereby make, sign and agree to the following articles of organization:

1. We have associated and do hereby associate together for ^{Chapter} the purpose of forming a corporation under ^A 6 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Wisconsin for the year 1898 and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, for the purpose of manufacturing and selling, buying and dealing in all kinds of lumber and timber posts, poles, ties and all kinds of lumber and timber products, and incidentally to said business, buying, selling and dealing in lands and general merchandise; also logging and driving for themselves or others.

2. The name of the corporation shall be the Davis Stitt Company, and its location shall be in the City of Marinette, Wisconsin.

3. The capital stock shall be forty Five Thousand Dollars, divided into four hundred and fifty shares of the par value of One hundred dollars.

4. The general officers shall be a President, Vice-president, Secretary and Treasurer; and the board of Directors shall consist of four stockholders.

5. The principal duties of such officers shall be as follows; of the President; to exercise a supervisory control over the business operations and affairs of the corporation, to preside over the meetings of the Board of Directors, to execute on behalf of the corporation all deeds, mortgages, leases and other instruments affecting title to, or interest in, real estate, and all bonds and other instruments of specialty, and to sign all certificates of stock of the Vice-President; to discharge the duties of the president in the event of his absence or disability for any cause whatever of the latter.

of the Secretary; to be present at all meetings of the stockholders and the Board of Directors and to take accurate minutes of the proceedings, to procure and have the custody of the Corporate seal and of the stock and transfer books, and to act as transfer agent of the Treasurer; to keep and account for all moneys, credits and property of the corporation of every name and nature which shall come into his hands and to keep an accurate account of all moneys received and disbursed ^{and proper vouchers for money disbursed} and to render such accounts, statements and inventories of moneys received and disbursed, and of the money and property on hand and generally of all matters pertaining to his office as shall be required by the board of directors. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may from time to time require.

Each of such officers shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by law, by the by-laws of the corporation, or by the rules and regulations or special resolutions of the board of directors, also all such duties and offices not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions as are usually performed by like officers in similar corporations in Wisconsin.

The Board of Directors may provide for the appointment of such additional officers as they may deem for the best interests of the Corporation.

The offices of the Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person. All officers and agents of the corporation shall perform their several offices and commission in such form and manner, and in accordance with such business habits and methods as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations or special resolutions of the board of directors.

6. Only persons holding stock according to the regulations of the corporation shall be members thereof.
