e. To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire in whole or in part, the business, good-will, rights, franchises and property of every kind, and to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of any person, firm, association or corporation engaged in or authorized to be conducted by this corporation, or owning property necessary or suitable for its purpose and to pay for the same in cash, in the stock or bonds of this corporation, or otherwise; to hold or in any manner dispose of the whole or any part of the business or property so acquired, and to exercise all the powers necessary or incidental to the conduct of such business.

f. To enter in any contract, co-operative agreement or profit-sharing plan with its officers or employees that the corporation may deem advantageous or expedient, or otherwise to reward or pay such persons for their services as the directors may see fit.

g. To purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock of this corporation or evidence of indebtedness of every kind or nature created by any corporation or corporations wherever organized, whether public or private.

h. To exercise generally the powers generally exercised by business corporations, and particularly the powers provided by the laws of the State of Idaho, in any State of the United States and throughout the World.

i. To buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of contracts, notes, bills of sale, mortgages and other evidences of debt, and the security for the payment of the same, to discount or negotiate notes, bills and other evidence of debt; to buy, sell, own and hold shares of capital stock of other corporations.

j. To carry into effect the objects and purposes aforesaid, this corporation is authorized to do all and singular the things necessary and convenient to carry out the general purposes for which it is organized.

k. To carry on any other business, or do anything in connection with the objects and purposes above mentioned that may be necessary and proper to accomplish successfully or promote the said objects and purposes, the foregoing clauses, by reason of the specific enumeration of powers, shall not be held to restrict the power of the corporation to do any of the things within due of its general powers.
