ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

of

JESUS Video Project of Idaho, Inc.

Preamble

I, the undersigned, being a natural person of full age and a citizen of the United States, in order to form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated, under and pursuant to the provisions of the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act of the State of Idaho and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, do hereby certify as follows:

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the Corporation is JESUS Video Project of Idaho, Inc.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSES

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized shall be or include the transaction of any or all lawful activity, including, but not limited to, the proclamation of the words and deeds of Jesus Christ so that persons who see and hear those words and deeds may and will choose to become disciples of Jesus Christ. Therefore, the Corporation is formed as a religious corporation under Idaho law.

ARTICLE VII. DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON DISSOLUTION

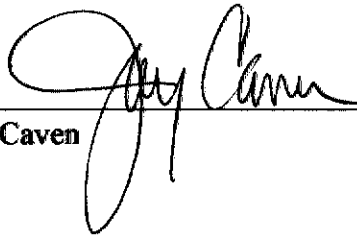

All property of the Corporation shall irrevocably be dedicated to the purposes of the Corporation as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and the Corporation's Bylaws. In the event at any time any proceeding or action is instituted or undertaken to dissolve the Corporation, all property of the Corporation which remains after all debts, obligations and liabilities of the Corporation have been paid and discharged or provided for, upon such a dissolution, shall be transferred, conveyed, paid over and delivered to such organization which is then exempt from taxation under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they then exist (or under the successor provisions thereto) and which is designated for that purpose by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII. LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

No director of the Corporation shall have any personal liability to the Corporation or to any one or more or all of its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except that the foregoing does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director: (a) For any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its members; (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; and (d) for any act as to which applicable law prohibits such elimination or limitation of liability. Subject to the foregoing, the Corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person and to advance expenses incurred or to be incurred by such person in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding threatened or commenced by reason of the fact that said person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or entity. Any such indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Any indemnification or expenses so granted or paid by the Corporation shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to the person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representative of such a person.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 8 day of February, 1995.

Jay Caven
