Article 6: IRS Designation Is this nonprofit a 501(c)3? 501(c)3 purpose for which the corporation is organized:	Yes Our purpose is to provide mentorship & resources to individuals who have demonstrated a character of selflessness & kindness, but lack opportunity or ability to pursue upward mobility in their career & in their life. An example being a single mother anywhere in the world, working 3 jobs while trying to raise small children. Our foundation would first provide mentors to assist and verify she has ambitions for something better, then help her determine what she can do for herself and finally if she lacks means, assist with resources to help her accomplish the goal. This could be through more education, training or maybe by assisting her with a large expense, such as medical bills that she can't reasonably pay down on her own in a reasonable time frame and that would financially prevent her from pursuing a better course in life. Even if we only eliminate the need for an additional job so she'll have more time for nurturing her children, this can be a better life, which is our goal.
