SECRETARY OF STATE
STATE OF IDAHOARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF CONCORDIA HEALTH CARE INC.

The undersigned, acting as the incorporators of a nonprofit corporation, Concordia Health Care Inc. organized under and pursuant to the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act, Chapter 3, Title 30, Idaho Code, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

Name: The name of the corporation is Concordia Health Care Inc.

ARTICLE II.

Purposes for the creation and operation of this corporation are:

Health Care Organization: The primary purpose of the corporation is to improve the overall health and wellness of individuals with a focus on physical, mental, and emotional well-being. The corporation has developed and will continue to refine specialized behavioral care models and mental health approaches and programming that will help those suffering from mental illness and other behavioral issues have reduced symptoms so they can live as normal and productive life as possible notwithstanding their particular mental health or behavioral disorders. This work will be accomplished in all areas where behavioral and mental health care can be delivered for individuals living in short and long-term health care facilities like skilled nursing facilities, hospitals, and assisted living facilities and other community residential housing settings. This health care organization and corporation will not discriminate as to race, sex, color, nationality, religion, or ethnic origin; however, the organization will participate in the practices and principles consistent with its Christian ministry.

Concordia Health Care Inc.'s Name: Concordia is quite simply the Latin word for harmony.

Concordia Health Care Inc. is committed to the goal of helping our community members accomplish a state of peace of mind and harmony within. There are any members of society that have diagnosed mental diseases or behavioral disorders that are struggling to survive day in and day out in a world rife with chaos. They are stigmatized and viewed by most in society as not worthy to participate meaningfully in life. They are subsequently placed in institutions or left to fend for themselves with little or no qualified mental health assistance, putting themselves and others around them at risk. At Concordia Health Care Inc., a lay ministry of dedicated Christian mental health professionals, we will not allow one more tormented soul to be marginalized due to their mental health issues. We are dedicated, in a Christ-like manor and setting, to provide modern and competent behavioral and mental health care to those that society has thrown to the gutters or allowed to languish in mental health institutions. At Concordia Health Care we will all strive to help the mentally ill, regardless of their circumstances, participate in life in a healthy, productive and meaningful way, just as God and our Lord Jesus Christ intended for us all. Concordia Health Care will set a standard of excellence in treatment that offers our patients stability, safety, dignity, compassion and hope for a better future.

Church: The Corporation is a lay ministry of dedicated men and women in service to God and their fellow man. The corporation is not aligned or affiliated with any other church or religious organization but will, in the spirit of Christian brotherhood, cooperate with all religious organizations to promote the organization's beliefs in the preservation of hope and dignity of all men and women regardless of the state of their mental health while living here on earth.

Health Care Facilities: The Corporation will operate and maintain, in time, various short term health care facilities, such as hospitals, as well as long-term health care facilities for the care and well-being of patients and individuals to promote the corporation's mission of ensuring its community members receive proper behavioral and mental health care and treatment and their other related health care needs. Further, the corporation will work with municipal, state, and federal government agencies to develop systems that will meet both the needs of various governmental agencies while at the same time helping to reduce the overall costs of properly caring for America's mental health population. The sharing of this information and strategies with both governmental agencies and private industry and not-for-profit mental health care providers will help reduce the cost of providing services and the facilities used for charity patient's health care needs.

Other: The Corporation has a further purpose; to promote any and all other activities which are consistent with the provision of health care services, and the maintenance of America's mentally ill as found in a Christian ministry, and consistent with the other lawful purposes of the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act.

The corporate purpose shall be within the meaning of, and limited by, United States Internal Revenue code Section 501 (c) (3) and amendments thereto. This corporation shall have the power to purchase, lease, hold, sell, develop, mortgage, convey or otherwise acquire or dispose of real or personal property necessary or incidental to the carrying on the work that the Corporation is formed to accomplish, including the right to accept donations of money, property, whether real or personal, or any other things of value. This corporation shall have the power to acquire by gift, or purchase, all property necessary for the purposes of this Corporation and for the proper conduct of its undertaking, to borrow money and to do any and all lawful things useful or necessary to carry out the aforesaid purposes. There shall be no pecuniary gain or profit and there shall be no capital stock.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States.
