V.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed shall be and are exclusively nonprofit, such objects and purposes being:

- (1) To educate young people.
- (2) To receive from any and all available sources funds for the maintenance and operation of such activities.
- (3) To hold title, legal or equitable, to property of any nature in trust for itself or for carrying out of any purpose incidental to its powers, and to sell or encumber any such property, real or personal.
- (4) To solicit, receive and expend the proceeds of fees, donations, bequests and legacies for any purpose for which this corporation is formed.
- (5) To enter into such contracts and to incur such obligations as are consistent with its powers, objects and purposes, but the private property of the officers, directors and members of the corporation shall be exempt from the debts of the corporation, and no officer, director or member shall be individually or collectively liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation.
- (6) It is intended that this corporation shall qualify as a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of Idaho.
- (7) Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for nonprofit corporations as the Board of Directors may determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(8) It is the intention of the incorporators hereof that the foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers, and the foregoing enumeration of specific objects and powers shall not be construed to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation, but said corporation shall have the power to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for the accomplishment of its purposes, for the attainment of any one or more of its objects hereinabove enumerated, or incidental to the purposes and objects hereinafter named, and which are permitted under the laws of the State of Idaho under which this corporation is organized, to the same extent and as fully as a natural person might or could do.

VI.

The governing body of this corporation shall be managed and conducted by a Board of Directors which shall constitute its School Board. The duly-adopted bylaws shall govern the activities of the corporation.

VII.

The Board of Directors of this corporation may meet and transact the business hereof either at the principal place of business herein designated, or at such other place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

VIII.

The bylaws of this corporation may be repealed, amended, altered, or new bylaws adopted at any annual meeting, or any special meeting called for that purpose, by a vote representing not less than a majority of the Board of Directors, or by the written consent, duly acknowledged, in the same manner as conveyances of real property are required to be acknowledged, of a majority of the Board of Directors, which written consent may be in more than one instrument.

IX.

The corporation is to have no members, and the name and post office address of the religious association which has authority to elect directors pursuant to subsection (b) or (e) of Section 30-314, Idaho Code are: Sandpoint Community Christian School,

P.O. Box 186, Sandpoint, Idaho 83864.
