ARTICLE TWO - PURPOSES

1-3

Within the meaning of the corporate purposes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation of TLC, including all amendments duly made thereto; the purposes of the Corporation are as follows:

A. The specific and primary purposes of this corporation are:

1. The preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ through the establishment of a local independent church of the Apostolic faith in the county of incorporation.
2. To preach the gospel and further the cause of the kingdom of God in the United States of America and in foreign lands.
3. To promote fellowship and means of cooperation between churches of like precious faith and doctrine.
4. To promote freedom of worship and liberty of expression within the limits of its own statement of faith and doctrine, among its own ministers and members.
5. To ordain, license and otherwise qualify ministers to preach the gospel and provide credentials for the same.
6. To establish and maintain Bible and training schools, inaugurate and maintain charitable institutions, such as homes for the aged, rest homes for ministers and missionaries, orphanages, homes for the indigent and those bound by substance abuse, cemeteries and kindred institutions.
7. To maintain such relations with local, state, federal and foreign governments as may be necessary for the successful accomplishment of the purposes of the organization and for the welfare of the church, ministers and members thereof.

8. To engage such employees as may be necessary to perform the duties involved in carrying the Corporation's business.
9. To make bylaws for the government of the Corporation, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, the United States, other states or foreign countries wherein the Corporation might minister, and to alter, revise and amend at will.
10. To receive contributions, to make donations and to dispense charitable contributions through, and otherwise aid and support those organizations qualified for exemption from federal income tax under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or subsequently amended.

B. The general purposes and powers of the corporation are:

1. To accept, receive, hold, sell, re-invest, and dispose of gifts, donations, devises, and bequests of both real and personal property.
2. To purchase, acquire, own, hold, sell, mortgage, transfer, pledge, and deed in trust personal or real property; to supervise property of others; to borrow money; to issue bonds, debentures, notes, and other obligations of this Corporation from time to time for any of the projects or purposes of this Corporation.
3. To buy, lease, rent, or otherwise acquire, hold or use, own, enjoy, sell, exchange, lease as lessor, mortgage, deed in trust, pledge, encumber, transfer on trust, or otherwise dispose of any and all kinds of property, whether real, personal, or mixed, and to receive property by devise or bequest
4. To borrow money into contract debts, to issue bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness, and to secure them by any or all of the property of this Corporation or to issue them unsecured.
5. To enter into, make, perform, and carry out contracts of every kind for any lawful purpose and without limit on the amount with any persons, firm, or corporation.
6. To have and to exercise all the powers conferred by State law upon nonprofit religious corporations, as that law is now in effect or may at any time hereafter be amended.

- C. Notwithstanding the foregoing statements of purposes and powers, this Corporation shall not engage in activities that in themselves are not in furtherance of the purposes herein set forth, and nothing contained in the foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed to authorize this Corporation to carry on any activity for the pecuniary gain of its members, officers and employees, or to distribute any games, profits, or dividends to any of its members, officers, or employees, as such. This Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Revenue Law), including, but not limited to, for such purposes, the establishing and maintaining of religious worship, the building, maintaining and operating of churches, parsonages, schools, chapels, radio
