ARTICLE 8. Share Issuance and Transfer Restrictions. The issuance of shares by the corporation, and the transfer of issued and outstanding shares of the corporation, to any person who is not a shareholder of the corporation shall require prior written authorization signed by shareholders holding at least two-thirds (2/3) of the then issued and outstanding shares of the corporation.

ARTICLE 9. Bylaws. The initial Bylaws of the corporation shall be adopted by the initial Board of Directors. Thereafter, the Bylaws of the corporation may be amended, modified, altered and repealed, and new Bylaws may be adopted, only by written authorization signed by shareholders holding at least two-thirds (2/3) of the then issued and outstanding shares of the corporation, and such Bylaws shall be binding in all respects on all shareholders of the corporation.

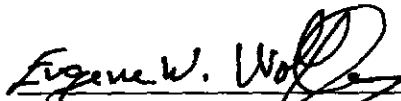

ARTICLE 10. Limitation on Personal Liability of Directors. No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for money damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for:

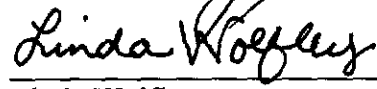

- (a) The amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which he is not entitled;
- (b) An intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders;
- (c) A violation of section 30-1-833, Idaho Code; or
- (d) An intentional violation of criminal law.

ARTICLE 11. Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify the directors and officers of the corporation to the fullest extent permitted by the Idaho Business Corporation Act, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than the Idaho Business Corporation Act permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment).

DATED this 22 day of May, 2012.
