INSTRUCTIONS

1. When required.
 - a. Sole proprietorships and general partnerships.

If a sole proprietor, general partnership or other association of individuals conducts business under a business name which does not include the legal name of each individual who has a financial interest in the business, it must file a Certificate of Assumed Business Name.
 - b. Formally organized or registered entities.

An entity which is organized, registered or admitted to the state by filing its organizational document or qualification papers with the Secretary of State is not required to file a Certificate of Assumed Business Name, except when it conducts business under a name other than its true name which appears on its organizational document or qualification papers. Formally organized or registered entities include corporations, limited liability companies, limited partnerships and limited liability partnerships.
2. One certificate per assumed business name. If a business conducts business under more than one assumed name, it must file a certificate for each assumed business name it uses.
3. Assumed name. Enter in item #1 the assumed business name exactly as is used in conducting the business with the public.
4. True names. For a sole proprietorship or general partnership, enter in item #2 the name and address of each individual who has a financial interest. For a formally organized or registered entity, enter in item #2 the true name exactly as it appears on the organizational or registration document, and its principal business address.
5. Type of business. Enter in item #3 one or more of the following types of business which best describes the business conducted under the assumed business name. Enter either the number or the words.
 1. Agriculture
 2. Mining
 3. Construction
 4. Manufacturing
 5. Transportation and Public Utilities
 6. Wholesale Trade
 7. Retail Trade
 8. Finance, Insurance, and Real Estate
 9. Services
6. Correspondence address. Enter in item #4 the address to which the Secretary of State should send correspondence concerning this certificate.
7. Signature. The certificate must be signed by an individual who has actual authority to bind the business to legal obligations. The signer should list his or her capacity, i.e. president, general partner, manager, etc., in the indicated space.
8. Customer #. If the filing party has a customer number established with the Secretary of State, enter it in the indicated space.
