EIGHTH - OTHER PROVISIONS:

8.1. Transactions Between Corporations, Officers, and Directors.

Without in any way limiting the provisions of Idaho law, no contract or other transaction between the corporation and no act of the corporation shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the Directors of the corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in or are directors or officers of such other corporation; any Director individually, or any firm of which any Director may be a member, may be a party to or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any contract or transaction of the corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors; and, any Director of the corporation who is also a director or officer of such other corporation, or who is so interested, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation which shall authorize any such contract or such transaction with like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

8.2. Shareholder Liability.

Without in any way limiting the provisions of Idaho law, the private property of the stockholders of the corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever, and the shares of the corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever, and the shares of the corporation shall not be subject to assessment for the purposes of paying expenses, conducting business, or paying debts of the corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the undersigned Incorporator, have hereunto set our hands and seals effective as of the 5 day of August, 1999.

Randy J. Arnzen, Incorporator
