P. To purchase and so far as the same may be done without impairing the capital of the corporation, except as otherwise permitted by law and to hold, pledge and reissue shares of its own capital stock, but such stock so acquired and held shall not be entitled to vote nor to receive dividends.

Q. To have, exercise and enjoy all the powers now or hereafter granted to corporations organized under the laws of the State of Idaho and particularly all of the powers and privileges granted to corporations by Chapter I of Title 30 of the Idaho Code and any present and/or future amendments thereto, and to do any act or thing necessary or convenient for the transaction of the aforesaid business and/or carrying into effect any and all of the aforesaid objects and purposes.

R. All of the foregoing provisions in this Article II are to be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that the enumeration herein of specific objects and powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the corporation; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the corporation to carry on any business or to exercise any power or to do any act which corporations formed under the laws of Idaho now or hereafter existing, may not at the time lawfully carry on or do. It is the intention that the purposes, objects and powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this Article II of the Articles of Incorporation shall, except as otherwise provided, in no wise be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the term of any other cause or paragraph of this paragraph contained or of any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, and it is the intention that the purposes, objects and powers specified in these Articles of Incorporation shall be regarded as independent purposes, objects and powers.

ARTICLE III

The corporation is to have perpetual existence.
