NINTH ARTICLE

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in its Articles of Incorporation in any manner now or hereafter prescribed or permitted by statute provided, that no such amendment, alteration, change or repeal shall be effective, in the case of Article Tenth, except upon approval by the holders of three-fourths (3/4) of each class of outstanding stock. All rights of stockholders of the corporation are granted subject to this reservation.

The Board of Directors is expressly authorized to alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the corporation and to adopt new Bylaws, subject to repeal or change by vote of holders of a majority of shares of the corporation's Common Stock.

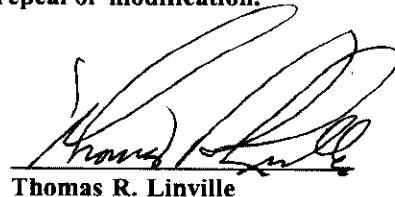

TENTH ARTICLE

At each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or to cumulate his votes by giving one (1) candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates. Any amendment to the Articles of Incorporation which limits or removes an existing right of a shareholder to cumulate his votes shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least three-fourths (3/4) of the shares of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

ELEVENTH ARTICLE

A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to this corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty of this corporation or its shareholders, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under § 30-1-49, Idaho Code, or (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. If the Idaho Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of this corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Idaho Business Corporation Act, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article Eleventh by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

DATED this 13th day of January, 1999.

Thomas R. Linville
