POCATELLO HOCKEY ASSOCIATION, INC.

The undersigned, acting as the incorporator of a nonprofit corporation ("Corporation") organized under and pursuant to the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act, Chapter 3, Title 30, Idaho Code ("Act"), adopts the following Articles of Incorporation ("Articles") for the Corporation.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the Corporation is Pocatello Hockey Association, Inc.

ARTICLE II. NONPROFIT STATUS

The Corporation is a nonprofit corporation.

ARTICLE III. PERIOD OF DURATION

The period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE IV. INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The address of the Corporation's initial registered office is 5220 Country Club Drive, Pocatello, Idaho 83204, and the name of the Corporation's initial registered agent at that address is James R. DiSanza.

ARTICLE V. PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized exclusively for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law). Its principal function is to promote the growth and development of amateur hockey in the Pocatello area in particular and in the State of Idaho in general. The Corporation may undertake all activities reasonably related to that purpose, including, without limitation, organizing and conducting hockey lessons, clinics, practices, leagues, competitions, and tournaments. The Corporation may further undertake to raise funds for the support of its function, to include private fund-raising, application for and receipt of grants or other similar sources of support and funding and related activities.

ARTICLE VI. POWERS

The Corporation may exercise all those powers a nonprofit corporation may exercise under the Act and that are necessary and proper to carrying out the Corporation's purpose as stated in Article V above. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, however, the Corporation shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes set forth in that portion of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law) under which the Corporation chooses to qualify for exemption.

ARTICLE VII. LIMITATIONS

No part of the net earnings or the assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in Article V above. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation (a) that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law), or (b) contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

ARTICLE VIII. MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have members. Through its Board of Directors, the Corporation may levy dues or assessments on its members in such amounts and at such times as the Board of Directors may determine reasonably necessary to carry out the purpose set forth in Article V above. Membership in the Corporation otherwise shall be governed and controlled as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than (10) individuals, each of whom, at all times, shall be a member of the Corporation. The actual number of Directors shall be fixed by the Bylaws of the Corporation. Other than the Directors constituting the initial Board of Directors, who are designated in these Articles, the Directors shall be elected or appointed by the existing Directors in the manner and for the term provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

The names and respective street addresses of the persons constituting the initial Board of Directors are:
