CONSERVATIVE ACCOUNTABILITY PROJECT INC.

Article 2: The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

Conservative Accountability Project Inc. (the "Corporation") is organized as a social welfare organization within the meaning of Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as hereafter may be amended (the "Code"). The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are to provide research, education, and communication on public policy issues. In furtherance of its exclusive corporate purposes, the Corporation shall have all the general and emergency powers enumerated in Sections 30-30-302 and 30-30-303 of the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended, together with the power to solicit grants and contributions for such purposes, except as the same may be limited by Section 501(c)(4) of the Code.

Article 8: Upon dissolution the assets shall be distributed:

- A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes as described herein.
- B. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not directly or indirectly carry on any activity which would prevent it from obtaining exemption from Federal income taxation as a corporation described in Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as hereafter may be amended, or cause it to lose such exempt status.
- C. In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the Corporation, the remaining assets of the Corporation shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Corporation, be distributed as the Board of Directors shall determine and in accordance with applicable law and regulations.
- D. To the fullest extent permitted by the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act (the "Act"), as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended, no officer or director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as an officer or director of the Corporation; provided, however, that such relief from liability shall not apply in any instance where such relief is inconsistent with applicable law. Subject to the provisions of the Bylaws, the Corporation shall indemnify any officer, director, or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by and in accordance with the Act.
