ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

GRANT CANAL COMPANY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, the undersigned citizens of the United States and of the State of Idaho, of full age and residents as hereinafter designated, in order to form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated, and to that end have, and by these presents do adopt, declare, and publish the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

That the name of said corporation shall be the "GRANT CAMAL COMPANY."

ARTICLE II

That said corporation shall be formed for the purposes hereinafter enumerated, but shall not be authorized to furnish water to persons other than its stockholders.

ARTICLE III

That the purposes for which said corporation is formed are:

- (a) To divert under rights owned by its stockholders, water from the Burgess Canal & Irrigating Company at the existing place of diversion, or as at that place of diversion may be relocated from time to time, when and as required; to carry such water through the canal to the terminus of said canal to the diversion of the company's respective stockholders.
- (b) To carry the water to which each stockholder is entitled to their respective point of diversion, but not beyond the terminus of said canal.
- (c) To construct and operate and maintain said canal and works as are necessary or proper in carrying out the objects and purposes enumerated in (a) and (b) in this article, and for carrying water for its stockholders.

(d) To fix and collect from its stockholders such assessments, tolls or other charges as are required to finance the Company's authorized activities. Such assessments, tools or other charges shall be assessed equally among the outstanding shares of stock, but the Company may provide, from time to time, by action of its Board of Directors, for a minimum charge for each such share with additional charges per share per irrigation season in proportion to the total volume of water carried per share.

- (e) To receive, acquire, hold, purchase, dispose of, convey, mortgage and/or lease, real or personal property; to dispose of, sell, lease, assign, transfer, mortgage and/or convey any rights, privileges, franchises, real or personal property of the corporation other than its franchise of being a corporation, and to acquire, purchase, guaranty, hold, mortgage, own, vote, sell, pledge and/or otherwise dispose of and deal in shares, bonds, securities and debentures, and other evidences of indebtedness of other corporations domestic or foreign.
- (f) To enter into contracts or obligations of any type or kind necessary or proper to the transaction of the ordinary affairs, and for the purposes of the corporation.
- (g) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, and hold, sell, convey, encumber, or transfer all kinds of real and personal property of every kind and description required in connection with the conduct of the business of this company.
- (h) To borrow money, and otherwise incur indebtendess not to exceed One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars; and to draw, make, accept, endorse, transfer, assign, guaranty, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, notes, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, negotiable instruments, and all other instruments for the payment of money, negotiable or nonnegotiable, and whether secured or unsecured.
- (i) To have, exercise and enjoy all the powers now or hereafter granted to the corporations organized under the laws of the State of Idaho, and particularly those applicable to the powers and privileges granted to corporations by Chapter 1 of Title 30 of the Idaho Code, and Chapter 24 of Title 42 of the Idaho Code, and any present and/or future amendements thereto, and to do any act or thing necessary or convenient for the transaction of the aforesaid business and/or carrying into effect any and all of the aforesaid objects and purposes.

(j) All of the foregoing provisions of this Article III are to be construed both as objects and powers, and it is expressly provided that the enumeration herein of specific objects and powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers and powers of the corporation; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the corporation to carry on any business or to exercise any power or do any act which corporations formed under the laws of the State of Idaho nor or hereafter existing may not, at the time, lawfully carry on It is the intention that the purposes, objects, and powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this Article III of these Articles of Incorporation shall, except as otherwise provided, in nowise be limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other clause or paragraph in this paragraph contained, or of any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, and t is the intention that the purposes, objects and powers specified in these Articles of Incorporation shall be regarded as independent purposes, objects and powers.

ARTICLE IV

- (a) The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be $3,000.00, divided into 3,000 shares of the par value of $1.00 per share.
- (b) Each share of stock shall entitle the holder to a carrying right in the company's system of one inch of water per share for each share of stock.
- (c) Each stockholder in the corporation owning and carrying water in the corporate irrigation system shall be held responsible for, and shall at his own expense purchase, his pump, in the event such stockholder elects to have his water placed in a sump and thereafter pump the same into his lateral ditch; otherwise, the corporation at its own expense shall install and maintain the canal, headgates and structures for the diversion of waters from the main canal into the respective ditches of the stockholders. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, establish rules and regulations with respect to, and actually supervise, such diversions of water and the installation and maintenance of facilities therefor.

(d) The company and its officers, agents and employees will use their best efforts and best judgment to make available to each stockholder in the main natural channel of the canal, the water to which it is entitled to have carried by the Company; should any stockholder feel aggrieved because of an alleged mistake or inaccuracy in the amount of water being carried, the company will correct the error as early as possible; however, no liability shall accrue against the company or its officers, agents or employees by reason of shortage in the quantity of water being carried by reason of drought, inaccuracy in distribution, hostile diversions by third parties, prior or superior claims, acts of God or other factors beyong the control of the Company, and its officers, agents and employees, but nothing in this sub article shall alter the rights of any stockholder to have carried for it through the Company's system, water to which it is entitled as a stockholder of the Company.

ARTICLE V

That said corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI

That the registered office of the Grant Canal Company shall be the home of the secretary treasurer of the association, and the post office address shall be Route 2, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

ARTICLE VII

That there shall be no other class of stock in said company other than the capital stock in the amount of 3,000 shares.

ARTICLE VIII

That the officers of this company shall be a president, vice president, and a secretary-treasurer, and the number of directors shall be three (3). The Board of Directors shall consist of the president and vice president and one other stockholder so elected. The secretary-treasurer shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and need not be one of the Directors. Officers and directors shall hold office for one year and until their successors in office are elected. That said officers and Board of Directors shall, as prescribed by the By-Laws, have full power and authority to manage and control the affairs of said corporation as provided by law.
