ARTICLE VI. PURPOSES.

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized and will be operated are as follows:

A. This nonprofit corporation is organized and operated exclusively for the religious purposes of a church within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, of the United States of America. Such church shall exist for the purpose of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and shall include any activity which may lawfully be carried on by such an organization.

B. Charitable, religious, educational, or scientific within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, including, for such purposes, the making of distribution to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under such Section 501(c)(3), and including any activity which may lawfully be carried on by such an organization.

C. To exercise all powers granted by law necessary and proper to carry out the above-stated purposes, including but not limited to the power to accept donations of money, property, whether real or personal, or any other thing of value. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the Corporation to carry on any business for profit, to exercise any power, or to do any act that a corporation formed under the Act, or any amendment thereto or substitute therefore, may not at that time lawfully carry on or do.

ARTICLE VII. LIMITATION.

No part of the net earnings or the assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VI hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VIII. MEMBERS.

The Corporation shall not have any members.

ARTICLE IX. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than seven (7) individuals. The actual number of Directors shall be fixed by the Bylaws of the Corporation from time to time. Other than the Directors constituting the current Board of Directors, who are designated in these Articles, the Directors shall be elected or appointed by the current Directors in the manner and for the term provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

The names and addresses of the persons constituting the initial Board of Directors are:
