Any bylaw adopted, amended or repealed by the directors may be repealed, amended or reinstated by an affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and present, in person or by proxy, at the next meeting of shareholders following such action without further notice other than this Article.

Article X

This corporation may enter into contracts and otherwise transact business as vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, with its directors, officers, and shareholders and with corporations, associations, firms, and entities in which they are or may become interested as directors, officers, shareholders, members, or otherwise, as freely as though such interest did not exist, except that no loan shall be made by the corporation to any of its officers or directors unless first approved by the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares and no loans shall be made by this corporation secured by its shares. In the absence of fraud the fact that any director, officer, shareholder, or any corporation, association, firm or other entity of which any director, officer, or shareholder is interested, is in any way interested in any transaction or contract shall not make the transaction or contract void or voidable, or require the director, officer, or shareholder to account to this corporation for any profits therefrom if the transactions or contract is or shall be authorized, ratified, or approved by (i) the vote of a majority quorum of the board of directors excluding any interested director or directors, (ii) the written consent of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, or (iii) a general resolution approving the acts of the directors and officers adopted at a shareholders meeting by vote of the holders of the majority of the shares entitled to vote. Nothing herein contained shall create any liability in the events described or prevent the authorization, ratification or approval of such transactions or contracts in any other manner.

Article XI

Section 1. Limitation of Director Liability. A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for liability of the director (i) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by the director. (ii) for conduct violating the Act, or (iii) for any transaction from which the director will personally receive benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled. If the Act is amended in the future to authorize corporation action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of this corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the full extent permitted by the Act, as so amended, without any requirement of further action by the shareholders.

Section 2. Indemnifications and Insurance. This corporation has the power to indemnify, including advance expenses, and to purchase and maintain insurance for, its directors, officers, trustees, employees, and other persons and agents against all liability, damage, and expenses arising from or in connection with service for, employment by, or other affiliation with this corporation or other firms or entities to the full extent and under all circumstances permitted by applicable law.

This corporation shall indemnify, including advance expenses, each of its directors to the full extent and under all circumstances permitted by applicable law.

Section 3. Survival of Benefits. An repeal or modification of this Article by the shareholders of this corporation shall not adversely affect any right by a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Article XII

The right to cumulate votes in the election of directors shall not exist with respect to shares of stock of this corporation.
