AMENDED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF STATE
OF AYUDAS, INC.

Pursuant to Idaho Code, §30-327, the following amendments to the Articles of Incorporation are hereby adopted by the Board of Directors.

FIRST: The name of the corporation is "AYUDAS, INC.".

SECOND: There are no members at the present time of this non-profit corporation so these amendments were approved at a meeting of the Board of Directors held the 14th day of January, 1981, there being a quorum of Directors present and a majority voted in favor of the amendments.

THIRD: All the original Articles of Incorporation are hereby repealed and new Articles of Incorporation adopted as follows:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be "Ayudas, Inc.".

ARTICLE II

This corporation is one which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof. The purposes for which this corporation is created are charitable and educational, and shall never include pecuniary profits, gain or private advantage for the incorporators, trustees, officers, agents or for the corporation. The purposes for which said corporation is formed are:

A. To facilitate the use of public and/or private agencies by persons in need of the services provided by said agencies with special emphasis on the Spanish speaking population.

B. To generally engage in, conduct, promote, support, or contribute to, any activities, projects, businesses, or endeavors whose purposes are solely charitable or educational and which do not in any way contemplate pecuniary gain or profit.

C. To receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both, and subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

D. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any officer of the corporation or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, officer of the corporation or private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of this certificate, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

F. Upon the dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE III

As a means of accomplishing the foregoing purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers:

A. To accept, acquire, receive, take and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order or decree or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, or whatever kind, nature or description, and wherever situate, and to sell, convey and dispose of any such property or funds and to invest or reinvest the principal thereof in such manner as it may see fit, and to deal and expend the income therefrom or any principal for any of the purposes of the corporation without limitations, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in any instrument under which any property is received, and any limitations under the laws of the State of Idaho regulating the powers of non-profit corporations, and providing that such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

B. To receive any property, real or personal, in trust under the terms of any Will, Deed of Trust, or any other trust instrument for the purposes of this corporation and in administering the same to carry out the directions and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which any property is received, including the expenditure of principal as well as income for such purposes if authorized or directed in such trust instrument.

C. To acquire by purchase or lease, or otherwise, land and interest in lands and to own, hold, improve, develop and manage any real estate so acquired and to erect or cause to be erected on any lands owned, held or occupied by the corporation, buildings or other structures with their appurtenances, and to rebuild, enlarge, alter or improve any buildings or structures now or hereafter erected on any lands so owned, held or occupied, and to mortgage, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any lands or interests in lands and in buildings or other structures and any part of any buildings or other structures of any kind owned or held by the corporation.

D. To receive, take title to, own, hold, use, invest and reinvest its funds in such stocks, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages and in such other securities and properties as its membership shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant or gift, provided that such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, and while the owner of any stocks to vote the same as a natural person could do.

E. To enter into contracts or obligations of any type or kind essential, necessary or proper to the transaction of its ordinary affairs, or for the purposes of the corporation.

F. To appoint agents, subagents and enter into all necessary contracts with agents and subagents.

G. To borrow money and otherwise incur indebtedness in the manner provided for in the By-Laws of the corporation and to draw, make, accept, endorse, transfer, assign, guarantee, execute and issue bonds, debentures, notes, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, negotiable instruments and all other instruments and contracts for the payment of money, negotiable or non-negotiable, and whether secured or unsecured.

H. To convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer upon trust or otherwise dispose of all property, real or personal; to lend money; to sue and to be sued; to conduct its affairs in the State of Idaho.

I. In general, and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which not are or hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth, or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred, or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the corporation, subject to the further limitation and condition that, notwithstanding any other provisions of this certificate, only such powers shall be exercised as are in furtherance of the tax exempt purposes of the corporation, and as may be exercised by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, and by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE IV

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE V

The location and street address of the registered offices of the corporation, and the initial registered agent at such address, shall be:

% Bill Henning

These individuals shall serve as directors until their successors are elected and qualified.

ARTICLE XIII

These Articles may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Board of Directors of said corporation.

ARTICLE XIV

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Under no circumstances shall any of the property or assets of this corporation during the existence and/or upon the dissolution thereof go and be distributed to any officer, member or subsidiary of this corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, being a majority of directors in office, have hereunto set our hands and seals this 2nd day of February, 1981.
