RE: Banks McNally & Dodge, PLLC – Use of the Word “Bank” in Company Name in Idaho

Dear Mr. Banks:

The Idaho Department of Finance (Department) received your email on December 4, 2024, requesting a waiver required by the Idaho Secretary of State in order to register the business name “Banks McNally & Dodge, PLLC” in the state of Idaho. It is our understanding that the word Banks in your entity was derived from your name and the nature of such entity is to offer legal services. We understand that Banks McNally & Dodge, PLLC will not operate in Idaho as a depository institution or conduct the business of banking.

Idaho Code § 26-1202 generally prohibits persons from advertising or transacting business in this state under a name or title containing the word “bank,” “banker,” or a word or words of similar import, unless the person holds a banking charter. The Director of the Department may grant a waiver to allow the use of the word “bank,” or words of similar import in certain circumstances. The waiver may be granted if:

- (a) The person is not engaged in banking or trust business;
- (b) The name or title used is not likely to deceive or mislead an individual to believe that the person is engaged in banking or trust business;
- (c) The name or title, or a name or title similar to it, is not already used by another person doing business in this state; and
- (d) The name or title does not suggest or imply that the person is engaged in unlawful conduct.

Based and conditioned on the information you have provided, it appears that the four factors set forth above, which allow the Director to grant a waiver to use the word “Bank” in your company’s name in Idaho, exist under the facts you have presented to us. I hereby grant a waiver to you to use the name Banks McNally & Dodge, PLLC in accordance with Idaho Code §
