ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

AUG 2 8 42 AM '84 of the

SECRETARY OF STATE

RAY L. ROBINSON

FAMILY ORGANIZATION, INC.

The undersigned persons acting as incorporators of this corporation under the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act, sign, and acknowledge the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the corporation is The Ray L. Robinson Family Organization, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the family organization, or the corporation.

ARTICLE II

DURATION

The period of duration is perpetual unless sooner dissolved according to law. Dissolution shall be accomplished by the process for amending these ARTICLES described in ARTICLE XII of this document.

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation, exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, or to an organization or organizations that at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Any such assets not so disposed of, shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

The purpose of the family organization shall be to advance the religious principles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, hereinafter referred to as the LDS Church, and to be engaged in charitable activities which will help family relationships. To fulfill these purposes the family organization shall engage in activities to:

1. Strengthen the ties of fellowship and kinship between living members of the family.
2. Maintain family unity through frequent association of family members in a social way.
3. Perpetuate the memory and genealogy of the ancestors and descendants of _____ and his wife _____
4. By combining the resources and efforts of the members of the family organization:
 - a. Perform genealogical research necessary for temple ordinances of the LDS Church.
 - b. Unify all genealogical, historical, and biographical research necessary for the compilation of complete and accurate family records.
 - c. Make the family records available to the LDS Church and to all interested parties.
 - d. Perform the necessary temple ordinances in behalf of the deceased relatives in the temples of the LDS Church.
5. Encourage every member to write and maintain personal history journals.
6. Encourage members to be prepared as families as outlined in the welfare program of the LDS Church.
7. Encourage members to fulfill missions, and donate funds to the missionary funds of the LDS Church.
8. Engage in, and encourage members to engage in, other religious and charitable activities, including making distributions to organizations, allowable under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE VI

DIRECTORS

The elected directors of the family organization shall consist of a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, and a Secretary-Treasurer, which directors shall constitute the Board of Directors. The election of directors shall be by a majority vote of the members present at the business session held in connection with the Annual Meeting of the family organization held in odd-numbered years. The term of office shall begin at the close of the business session at which the directors are elected and shall cover a period of two years. All directors shall be eligible for re-election. Failure to hold the Annual Meeting or failure to elect any directors shall not disorganize the family organization.

The directors of the family organization shall appoint as committee chairmen, a Genealogist, a Genealogical Research Coordinator, a Publication Editor, a Historian, and an Official Agent. A reporter and genealogist for each branch of the family shall also be appointed. These appointments shall be renewed or altered at the time of the Annual Meeting held on the odd-numbered years.

All elected directors and appointed committee chairman must be current members of the Ray L. Robinson Family Organization.

The duties of the directors and committee chairmen are outlined in the By-laws of the family organization.

(ARTICLE VI continued)

Until decided differently at the annual meeting prescribed above, the directors shall be:

President Ray LaMar Robinson 1180 West 4th St., Kuna, ID 83634

Vice-Presidents Daniel B. Robinson 1719 W. 25th Ln. Yuma, AZ
Joseph T. Meier 1347 Nichols Rd. Fruit Heights, UT 84037
Secretary-Treasurer Connie R. Danes 476 Marteeson Ave. Kuna, ID 83634

ARTICLE VII

INCORPORATORS

The incorporators are:

Ray L. Robinson
Gayle G. Robinson
Connie R. Danes

ARTICLE VIII

MEMBERSHIP

All descendants of Ray L. Robinson and their husbands or wives are eligible for membership in the Ray L. Robinson Family Organization. Persons who are not descendants of Ray L. Robinson but who are interested in the genealogy of his ancestors or descendants are eligible to become members of the family organization. Any person who is eligible may become a member of the family organization by contacting the Secretary-Treasurer and by paying the annual dues required to sustain membership.

ARTICLE IX

COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors shall set up committees and make assignments as necessary in administering the programs of the family organization. Committee appointments and special assignments may be temporary or permanent, but such appointments or assignments shall be considered fulfilled at the time elections of new officers are held in odd-numbered years.

ARTICLE X

MEETINGS

The meetings of the family organization shall consist of an Annual Meeting and such other meetings or reunions as may be approved by the Board of Directors. The Annual Meeting shall be held at a time and place determined by the vote of a majority of the members present at the preceding Annual Meeting. The agenda of the Annual Meeting shall include any necessary election of officers and presentation of business matters, supplemented by such other general activities as may be desired by the Board of Directors. The time and place of all Annual Meetings shall be announced to all family organization members at least one month in advance of the meetings.

ARTICLE XI

COMPLIANCE

This corporation is established in compliance with the Nonprofit Corporation Act of the State of Idaho, and the Nonprofit Income Tax Exemption provisions of the United States Government Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). None of the proceeds from this corporation will accrue to the personal and individual benefits of the members, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in ARTICLE III hereof. No loans will be provided to officers, members, or other private parties without substantial collateral. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation and subsequent Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at the business session held in connection with the Annual Meeting of the family organization held in odd-numbered years.
