Pete T. Cenarrusa

SECRETARY OF STATE

Corporation Clerk

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

RICHARD W. WILSON, M.D., P.A.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, the undersigned, being legally competent, and a natural person of full age and a citizen of the United States, and a physician licensed to practice medicine under the laws of the State of Idaho, for the purpose of forming a professional service corporation under and pursuant to the provisions of the Professional Service Corporation Act of the State of Idaho and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

FIRST

The name of the corporation shall be:

RICHARD W. WILSON, M.D., P.A.

SECOND

The purposes and objects for which the corporation is formed are:

(a) To render professional service in the field of the practice of medicine to the public by persons specifically licensed under the laws of the State of Idaho as physicians for the purpose of engaging in the practice of medicine. Such person shall practice the profession in accordance with the rules for professional conduct promulgated by the laws of the State of Idaho and the ethics prescribed for the practice of medicine.

(b) The corporation may not engage in any business other than the rendering of the professional services of the practice of medicine as herein otherwise set forth, provided, however, this corporation, by and through its officers and directors, shall have the power and authority to invest the corporate funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, and like securities, bonds or any other type of investments and in real estate and personal property that may be necessary for the rendering of the professional services of the corporation, and within the limitations of paragraphs Second (a) and (b), to use the powers of the following Sections (c) through (g).

(c) To buy, sell, acquire, hold, own, mortgage, pledge, lease, assign, transfer, trade and deal in and with all kinds of personal property goods, wares, and merchandise of every kind, nature and description.

(d) To buy, sell, lease, let, mortgage, exchange or otherwise acquire or dispose of lands, lots, houses, buildings and real property, hereditaments and appurtenances of all kinds and wheresoever situated, and of any interest and rights therein, to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, and without limit as to amount.

(e) To acquire by purchase, subscription, or otherwise and to own, hold, sell, negotiate, assign, deal in, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, any shares of capital stock, script, bonds, mortgages, securities or evidences of indebtedness, issued or created by any other corporation, joint stock company or association, public or private, or by whomsoever issued, and while the holder or owner thereof, to possess and exercise in respect thereof any and all rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon.

(f) To make, perform and carry out contracts of every kind and description made for any lawful purpose, without limit as to amount, with any person, firm, association or corporation, either public or private, or with any territory or government, or agency thereof.

(g) To borrow money, to draw, make, accept, endorse, transfer, assign, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, and any other evidences of indebtedness, and for the purpose of securing any of its obligations or contracts to convey, transfer, assign, deliver, mortgage and/or pledge all or any part of the property or assets, real or personal, at any time owned or held by this corporation, upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors shall authorize, and as may be permitted by law.

(h) To acquire, hold, sell, re-issue or cancel any shares of its own capital stock, provided, however:

(1) That this corporation may not use any of its funds or property for the purchase of its own common stock when such use would cause any impairment of the capital of this corporation;

(2) That the shares of its own capital stock belonging to this corporation shall not be voted directly or indirectly;

(3) No capital stock of this corporation may be issued to anyone other than an individual who is duly licensed under the laws of the State of Idaho to practice the profession of medicine as a licensed physician, and provided further that any common capital stock of this corporation may not be voted by any person or persons who are not at the time of such vote licensed in good standing as physicians authorized to practice medicine pursuant to the laws of the State of Idaho;

(i) To establish for the benefit of its employees one or more (1) pension plan, (2) profit-sharing plan, or (3) other employee benefit retirement and incentive compensation plans.

(j) To have and to exercise any and all powers and privileges now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of Idaho upon corporations formed under the general corporation laws of said State, or under any Act amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto or substituted therefor, provided the powers are not in conflict with the Professional Services Corporation Act.

(k) To render professional services as licensed physicians through its officers, employees and agents only, and only upon said officers, employees and agents being properly and duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render such professional medical services within the State of Idaho, provided, however, that any officer, shareholder, agent or employee of this corporation shall remain personally and fully liable and accountable for any negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by him, or by any person under his direct supervision and control, while rendering professional services on behalf of this corporation to the person for whom such professional services were being rendered, and provided that this corporation shall be liable in addition thereto, up to the full value of its property for any negligent or wrongful acts or misconducts committed by any of its officers, shareholders, agents or employees while they are engaged on behalf of the corporation in rendering of such professional services, and provided further any officer, shareholder, agent or employee of this corporation who has been licensed to render professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services within the State, or is elected to public office or accepts employment that, pursuant to the existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon his continued rendering of such professional services under the law, such persons shall sever all employment with, and financial interest in this corporation forthwith, and any capital stock of this corporation held by such individual shall be called immediately or the ownership thereof shall otherwise immediately be vested in persons qualified to be shareholders in accordance with the provisions hereof and the By-Laws of the corporation.

(1) To Call of Share: Any shares shall be callable. The call shall be by a vote of not less than seventy-five (75) percent of the outstanding stock at a duly called meeting, and at a price and on a payment schedule specified in the By-Laws. Upon disqualification of the shareholder, the call shall be made within thirty (30) days after notice of the event by which any shareholder has ceased to be qualified to be a shareholder.

A disqualified stockholder may not vote his stock as to the call thereof. Subject hereto, a shareholder may transfer his stock to a person duly qualified to practice medicine in the State of Idaho after first having offered the stock to the corporation at the stock's fair market value and the offer not being accepted

The foregoing clauses are to be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that enumeration herein of specific objects and powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the corporation, provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize or permit the corporation to carry on any business or to exercise any power or to do any act which a professional corporation formed under the Professional Corporation Act of the State of Idaho, or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, or substitute therefor, may not at the time lawfully carry on or do.

THIRD

The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

FOURTH

The location and post office address of the registered office of the corporation is: 999 North Curtis, Boise, Idaho.

The registered agent of the corporation is: Richard W. Wilson

FIFTH

There shall be only one class of capital stock of this corporation, which shall be designated as common stock, and such common stock shall be and consist of 10,000 shares each with a par value of $1.00 per share, totaling in the aggregate sum of $10,000.

(a) None of the capital stock of this corporation may be issued to any person, firm, or other individual corporation or organization other than an individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to practice medicine within the State of Idaho. The shareholders shall, except for absence not exceeding nine (9) months due to sickness or accident, or service in the armed services, or leaves of absence, also be actively engaged in the practice of medicine in the offices of the corporation.

(b) Common stock of this corporation passing by operation of law or by the laws of descent and distribution or by other legal fashion to any person, firm or other individual or organization who is at the time not a physician licensed to practice medicine under the laws of the State of Idaho, shall be deemed immediately called unless the ownership of such shares shall have immediately vested in a person qualified to be a shareholder.

(c) No voting trust, agreement or other type of arrangement, the effect of which would place the common capital stock of this corporation in any ownership other than an individual licensed to practice medicine under the laws of the State of Idaho, shall be recognized or effective.

(d) If any individual shareholder, as is herein provided, shall be disqualified to render professional medicine services within the State of Idaho, or is elected to public office or accepts employment that, pursuant to existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon such individual's continued rendering of such medical services, then the common stock of this corporation owned by said individual, shall be called immediately or the ownership thereof shall otherwise immediately be vested in persons qualified to be shareholders in accordance with the provisions hereof and the By-Laws of the corporation.

(e) A shareholder of this common capital stock of this corporation may not transfer shares of this corporation except to another individual who is eligible to be a shareholder of this corporation in accordance with the provisions hereof and only after such sale or transfer shall be approved at a stockholders' meeting, specifically called for such purpose, by not less than a majority of the outstanding stock of this corporation, not including the shares of the shareholder proposing to sell or transfer such shares in the counting of the votes for any purpose at such meeting, unless all stockholders and all shares of stock vote in favor of a consent that such stock of the transferring shareholder be so voted.

(f) The stockholders shall have the power to include in the By-Laws, adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all stockholders, any regulations or restrictions governing sale, transfer, call or other disposition of the corporation's outstanding stock. Such provisions shall not effect rights of third parties without notice, unless evidence of this power is shown as a legend on the stock certificate.

SIXTH

The name and post office address of the incorporator and director and the professional status of such incorporator and director and the number of shares subscribed for by said incorporator are as follows:

NAME	POST OFFICE ADDRESS	PROFESSIONAL STATUS	SHARES
Richard W. Wilson, M.D.	999 North Curtis Boise, Idaho	Neurologist	100

SEVENTH

The private property of the stockholders of the corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever, and the shares of the corporation shall not be subject to assessment for the purpose of paying expenses, conducting business, or paying debts of the corporation to such extent, subject to such limitations as may be approved by two-thirds (2/3) majority of all outstanding shares at a meeting specifically called and notice for such purpose.

EIGHTH

The number of Directors of the corporation shall be as specified in the By-Laws, and such number may from time to time be increased or decreased in such manner as may be prescribed in the By-Laws. In case of any increase in the number of Directors, the additional Directors may be elected by the Directors then in office, and the Directors so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. Each Director may be a licensed physician in good standing under the laws of the State of Idaho. In electing directors, each stockholder has the right to vote the number of shares he owns for as many persons as there are Directors to be elected.

NINTH

Stockholders of the corporation shall not have pre-emptive and preferential right of subscription to any shares of stock of the corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, or to any obligations convertible to stock.

TENTH

A voluntary sale, lease or exchange of all of the property and assets of the corporation, including its good will and its corporate franchises, may be made by the Board of Directors upon approval of two-thirds of the voting power of all shareholders and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem expedient and for the best interest of the corporation, under the laws of the State of Idaho.
