ARTICLE IX

Preemptive right of existing stockholders:

- A. If the corporation, through its stockholders, authorizes the issue, by sale or exchange, of its capital stock for money or other consideration, each existing stockholder shall have a prior right to purchase on equal terms, a proportionate share of the stock to be issued; provided, that this section shall not limit the right of the corporation acting through the Board of Directors to declare a stock dividend as provided by law.
- B. The phrase "existing stockholder" describes a stockholder holding one or more shares of the common stock of the corporation registered in his name in the stock journal of the corporation and the time the stockholders authorize an issue of stock.
- C. An existing stockholder's proportionate share shall be determined by the ratio that his shares bear to the total of shares issued and outstanding. The total of shares issued and outstanding shall not include treasury stock. The number of shares held by an existing stockholder and the total of shares issued and outstanding, shall be determined as of the time the stockholders authorize the issue of stock.
- D. Upon the authorization of an issue of capital stock, the Secretary shall mail to each existing stockholder by ordinary mail, postage prepaid, a notice which shall set forth:
 - (i) The total amount of stock to be issued;
 - (ii) The price per share of the stock to be issued; and
 - (iii) Each existing stockholder's proportionate share, and the number of shares to be issued to which each may subscribe.
- E. The preemptive rights of existing stockholders shall be exercised not later than two months after the corporation has authorized such an issue of its capital stock.

- F. The corporation, through its stockholders, by resolution of a majority of the stockholders voting, may, with respect to such preemptive rights of existing stockholders, require that the existing stockholders exercise their preemptive rights by purchasing whole, not fractional, shares of stock.

ARTICLE X

Restriction on the alienation of stock:

- A. Except as otherwise provided, a stockholder who desires to sell his share of stock must first offer them for sale to the corporation, it being the intention hereof to give it a preference in the purchase of them, and any attempted sale in violation of this section is null and void.
- B. A stockholder desiring to sell his stock to any person other than the corporation shall file notice in writing of his intention with the Secretary of the Corporation, stating the identity of the proposed purchaser and the terms of sale. Unless his terms are accepted by the corporation within 45 days thereafter, the corporation shall be deemed to have waived its privilege of purchasing and he shall be at liberty to sell to the named purchaser on the same terms of sale.
- C. If the corporation accepts the offer of sale as to part or all of the offered shares, it shall be entitled to purchase as many shares as it shall have accepted, and the stockholder shall be at liberty to sell the remaining shares to the name purchaser upon the same terms of sale.
- D. In no event shall a stockholder transfer less than all of his stock to any transferee, except as permitted by the corporation.
- E. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, any limited stockholder may:
- (i) Transfer or dispose of his interest herein by Will or intestacy to a member of his immediate family.
 - (ii) Transfer or dispose of his interest herein by gift to a member of his immediate family or trustee for said family member.

For the prupose of this paragraph, immediate family is defined as spouse, child, parent, sibling or in-law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed these presents this 22nd day of March, 1994.
