RE: Bank in company name request

Dear Ms. Woolsey:

Your letter dated November 19, 2013, requesting approval of the assumed business name "Lifeline Food Bank" for use in the state of Idaho has been received by the Idaho Department of Finance (Department) and has been reviewed by Department staff. We understand from your letter that Clearwater Community Foundation, Inc. is conducting a project called "Lifeline Food Bank" in the Orofino, Idaho community, the purpose of which is to collect cash donations and distribute food to the needy within that community. Further, we understand that the company will not operate in Idaho as a depository institution or conduct the business of banking.

Section 26-1202 of the Idaho Bank Act prohibits any person, other than a national bank, not authorized to operate as a bank under the Act, to advertise or use as part of its company name the word "bank" or "banker" or any other word of similar import. The Bank Act does not authorize the Director of the Idaho Department of Finance to waive the requirements of that law. Rather, the Department is offering "no objection" to the company's use in Idaho of the company name "Lifeline Food Bank." Under the circumstances set forth in your letter, we do not believe the name proposed by the company for use in Idaho is misleading to the public. While the Department does not intend to pursue an action under this statute, it is possible that another agency may do so. However, we believe the likelihood is slight.

Please feel free to contact the Department if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Mary E. Hughes
